The Sense Of Space:

The Feeling of Space Christopher Bardt, 2024-12-31 A richly illustrated exploration of humanity's drive to shape life as a spatial project from Plato's time to the digital era. Place is something real but space is generally conceived as abstract and immaterial. In The Feeling of Space Christopher Bardt explores this damaging modern binary and traces the contradictory impulses that have dematerialized our sense of space through history: fear and wonder, a yearning for the infinite and intimate, and the need for autonomy and belonging. Using rich illustrations and examinations of art, technology, and philosophy, Bardt argues that if we can get back to first feeling space, then we can treat space as the substance that gives agency to our intersubjectivity, the exchange of conscious and unconscious thoughts we have with others. Expertly connecting ideas with clear examples from lived experiences, Bardt's revolutionary framework will appeal to a broad readership, particularly those who are interested in the theoretical and philosophical aspects of spaces. In an age where digital media has dissolved instead of increased our sense of connection, The Feeling of Space shows that when we learn to experience space as a medium as real as a place, we not only see ourselves as inherently spatialized beings but we can also rebuild the bonds that tie us together.

Sense of Space. Preposition of Place Masixole Ncevu, 2025 Renaissance Masters George B. Rose, 1898 Time: Sense, Space, Structure, 2016-05-09 The essays in this volume explore the nature of time, our God-given medium of ascent known as Augustine puts it through the ordered study of the liberal disciplines that carry the mind to the divine disciplinae liberales: intellectum, efferunt ad divina, grammar and dialectic, for example, to promote thinking, geometry and astronomy to grasp the dimensions of our reality, music, an invisible substance like time itself as an exemplary bridge to the unseen substance of thoughts, ideas, and the nature of God, theology. This ascending course of study rests on procedure, progress, and attainment, on before following and afterwards, whose goal is an ascending erudition that lets us finally contemplate, as Augustine says in De ordine, our invisible medium, time within time itself, time is immaterial but experienced as substantial. The essays here look at projects that chronicle time from the beginning that clarify ideas of creation in time and simultaneous times and the interrelationships between measured time and eternity, including no time. Essays also examine time as revealed in social and political contexts, as told by clocks, as notated in music, and embodied in memorializing stone. In the final essays of this volume, time is understood as the subject and medium of consciousness. As Adrian Bardon says, time is not so much a what as a how, a solution to organizing experience and modeling events. Contributors are in order within the volume: Jesse W Torgerson, Ken A Grant, Danielle B Joyner, Nancy van Deusen, Peter Casarella, Aaron Canty, Jordan Kirk, Vera von der Osten, Sacken, Gerhard Jaritz, Jason Aleksander, Sara E Melzer, Mark Howard, Andrew Eschelbacher, Hans J Rindisbacher, James F Knapp, Peggy A Knapp, Raymond Knapp, Michael Cole, Ike Kamphof, and Leonard Michael Koff. Space and Geometry in the Light of Physiological, Psychological and Physical Inquiry Ernst Mach, 1906 The Perception of Space and Matter Johnston Estep, Walter, 1879 The Laryngoscope, 1909 Fraser's Magazine for Town and Country James Anthony
