Widow Smith Of Spences Bridge:

Widow Smith of Spence's Bridge Jessie Ann Smith, Murphy Shewchuk, 1989 Autobiography of Jessie Ann Smith who was born 17 July 1853 in Gartly Aberdeenshire Scotland She married John Smith ca 1884 and immigrated to Canada after landing at the port of New York John died ca 1905 and Jessie continued to rear her children in the British Columbia province of Canada Jessie died 7 February 1946 in Spence s Bridge B C Canada Descendants lived primarily in Canada Vanishing British Columbia Michael Kluckner, 2011-11-01 The old buildings and historic places of British Columbia form a kind of roadside memory a tangible link with stories of settlement change and abandonment that reflect the great themes of our history With small towns declining and old rural properties changing so little of the history of these places has been recorded in museums or archives and so much of it may disappear as families disperse and memories dim More than a decade ago Michael Kluckner began painting these dots on his personal map of the province in a watercolour sketchbook In 1999 after he put a few of the sketches on his website a network of correspondents emerged that eventually led him to the family letters photo albums and memories all from a disappearing era of the province Vanishing British Columbia is a record of these places and the stories they tell It combines engaging and insightful historical commentary with over 160 of the author s original paintings It has an exceptional assortment of historic imagery including old postcards architectural plans and photographs The study of roadside memory demonstrates the visceral connection that people especially those who are part of the rural to urban diaspora of modern times have for the sites of their family memories On a grander scale this approach leads to a broader understanding of more abstract historical themes and of the province s history and culture It also presents a compelling argument for stewardship of regional history in the face of urbanization and globalization At the Bridge Wendy Wickwire, 2019-06-10 At the Bridge chronicles the little known story of James Teit a prolific ethnographer who from 1884 to 1922 worked with and advocated for the Indigenous peoples of British Columbia and the northwestern United States From his base at Spences Bridge BC Teit forged a participant based anthropology that was far ahead of its time Whereas his contemporaries including famed anthropologist Franz Boas studied Indigenous peoples as members of dying cultures Teit worked with them as members of living cultures resisting colonial influence over their lives and lands Whether recording stories mapping place names or participating in the chiefs fight for fair treatment he made their objectives his own With his allies he produced copious meticulous records an army of anthropologists could not have achieved a fraction of what he achieved in his short life Wickwire s beautifully crafted narrative accords Teit the status he deserves consolidating his place as a leading and innovative anthropologist in his own right Heritage Apples Susan Lundy, 2013 Heritage Apples travels far beyond the grocery store of today to savor the apples of the past These are the apple varieties the Gravensteins the Kings the red fleshed Pink Pearl that link us to history but through food movements and taste preferences are remerging as the fruit of the future Heritage apples evoke memories and passion for some for others they offer delicious unexplored flavors and a connection to local farmers Discover the histories behind the apples and learn some startling apple facts Identify the taste appearance and uses of 40 different heritage varieties and gain useful growing and harvesting information Meet apple growers cider makers and people fighting to preserve heritage apples and join a lifestyle that embraces local and slow food movements Then try the recipes Create delicious apple based dishes such as Chickpea Apple Curry French Apple Clafouti Tarte Tatin Apple Brownies Apple Pie and more Expand your knowledge of one of our most popular fruits and celebrate its history with Heritage Apples Carving the Western Path R. G. Harvey, 2011-06-15 A century of dealmaking and government misdeeds forms the backdrop of this entertaining account of sternwheelers iron horses and mountain roads Battling factions of rail builders crossed many a line in the sand as they carved up both the land and the spoils of industry Did both federal and provincial politicians wittingly sabotage road construction programs to the benefit of the rail barons Were Cornelius Van Horne Major A B Rogers and Andrew McCulloch fully deserving of the accolades bestowed on them Was railway man J J Hill a genius or an opportunist R G Harvey has applied a keen mind and deft pen to uncover skulduggery in politics and critical routing errors by the early surveyors and engineers who carved their western paths In turn he has exposed new scars and wrinkles to add to historic portraits otherwise untainted British Columbia United Farmer ,1910
