Suspect Groom:

Catherine's Marriage: a Novel Earnes Irving,1864 Harmonia Mary Allan-Olney,1887 Claude Jutra Jim Leach,1999 Claude Jutra best known as the director of Mon oncle Antoine has been widely acclaimed as one of Canada's premier filmmakers Despite this there has been surprisingly little critical writing about his work and the context in which it was created and viewed Jutra was a Quebec nationalist and both he and his films were shaped by the changes in Quebec society during the Quiet Revolution and by the political tensions of the sixties and seventies Though he died in 1986 his films still have much to tell us about Canadian cinema and the ongoing debates on Canadian and Quebec nationhood Book jacket

A History of the Jewish Community in Istanbul Minna Rozen,2010-10-15 This volume presents the transformation of the Greek speaking Jewish community of Byzantine Constantinople into an Ottoman ethnically diversified immigrant community As the Ottomans influenced its cultural and social values the community strived to preserve its boundaries with the surrounding society Child Pornography and Sexual Grooming Suzanne Ost,2009-05-28 Child pornography and sexual grooming provide case study exemplars of problems that society and law have sought to tackle to avoid both actual and potential harm to children Yet despite the considerable legal political and societal concern that these critical phenomena attract they have not thus far been subjected to detailed socio legal and theoretical scrutiny How do society and law construct the harms of child pornography and grooming What impact do constructions of the child have upon legal and societal responses to these phenomena What has been the impetus behind the expanding criminalisation of behaviour in these areas Suzanne Ost addresses these and other important questions exploring the critical tensions within legal and social discourses which must be tackled to discourage moral panic reactions towards child pornography and grooming and advocating a new more rational approach towards combating these forms of exploitation Silvia Julia Kavanagh,1870

Stanko,2024-07-05 The policing of rape is in permacrisis This book addresses the question of why police investigations continue to fail most rape victim survivors and puts forward a framework for what policing can do to change this Low conviction rates and poor victim survivor experiences are the hallmarks of the rape justice gap Three decades of research policy and legal changes have tweaked rape investigations to alleviate some of their ills however for the majority of victim survivors the process remains gruelling Police forces are notoriously resistant to reform even in the face of rapidly declining public trust The starting point of this book is the recognition that if we want profound change in policing we must try something new To do so the authors move from asking What is it about rape that makes it so difficult for police to investigate it well to asking What is it about the police that makes it so difficult for police to investigate rape well Policing Rape sets out a practice oriented theoretical framework for radically and sustainably transforming rape investigations rape prevention and the quality of officer engagement with victim survivors The authors reflect on the journey of putting this framework into practice within Operation Soteria Bluestone as a step on the path towards a radical transformation of rape policing This book is essential reading for all those looking to understand and improve the policing of rape Parliamentary Debates Australia.
