Talking Politics:

Talking Politics A. W. Sparkes, 2006-06-19 Talking Politics is a philosophical examination of some of the basic concepts of political discourse Its primary focus is on the ordinary on what is said by politicians in newspapers and by people in pubs rather than on the works of political theorists This is a work of but not on political theory Talking Politics is Invaluable as a source of reference for students and contains a detailed index Arranged thematically around topics such as Nation Each entry has copious cross references and suggestions for further reading A W Sparkes is uniquely qualified to write such a book combining some thirty years teaching as a philosopher with wide experience of and a life long fascination with politics His attitude is that of a critical but uncynical observer

Talking Politics William A. Gamson, 1992-08-28 Those who analyze public opinion have long contended that the average citizen is incapable of recounting consistently even the most rudimentary facts about current politics that the little the average person does know is taken strictly from what the media report with no critical reflection and that the consequence is a polity that is ill prepared for democratic governance And yet social movements comprised by and large of average citizens have been a prominent feature of the American political scene throughout American history and have experienced a resurgence William Gamson asks how is it that so many people become active in movements if they are so uninterested and badly informed about issues The conclusion he reaches in this book is a striking refutation of the common wisdom about the public s inability to reason about politics

Public Policy and the Arts: A Comparative Study of Great Britain and Ireland Ruth-Balandina M. Quinn, 2018-08-20 First published in 1998 this volume considers the subject of arts policy as a subject of public policy making proper in UK and Ireland with a particular focus on theatre as a profession rather than a mere hobby Previous studies have placed the burden of policy improvements on the arts themselves looking at what the arts can do to be worthy of government funding and favourable policy and have seen government actions as if they have a uniform effect This study takes the arts out of the abstract and discusses specific ways that diverse activities with even more diverse needs can be best approached with government policy assessing the strengths and weaknesses of government initiatives It is aimed at both political scientists and anyone with an interest in arts and cultural policy     Devolution in Britain Today Colin Pilkington,2002 A comprehensive and up to date analysis of devolved government in Britain today     Cybermarketing Pauline Bickerton,Matthew Bickerton,Upkar Pardesi,2000 This text is a guide to using the Internet for marketing covering intranets for Marcomms electronic direct and one to one marketing It includes chapters on marketing information systems brand the global issues and price strategies issues and case studies
