Tantra Magic:

Tantra, Magic, and Vernacular Religions in Monsoon Asia Andrea Acri, Paolo E. Rosati, 2022-11-03 This book explores the cross and trans cultural dialectic between Tantra and intersecting magical and shamanic practices associated with vernacular religions across Monsoon Asia With a chronological frame going from the mediaeval Indic period up to the present a wide geographical framework and through the dialogue between various disciplines it presents a coherent enquiry shedding light on practices and practitioners that have been frequently alienated in the elitist discourse of mainstream Indic religions and equally overlooked by modern scholarship The book addresses three desiderata in the field of Tantric Studies it fills a gap in the historical modelling of Tantra it extends the geographical parameters of Tantra to the vast yet culturally interlinked socio geographical construct of Monsoon Asia it explores Tantra as an interface between the Sanskritic elite and the folk the vernacular the magical and the shamanic thereby revisiting the intellectual and historically fallacious divide between cosmopolitan Sanskritic and vernacular local The book offers a highly innovative contribution to the field of Tantric Studies and more generally South and Southeast Asian religions by breaking traditional disciplinary boundaries Its variety of disciplinary approaches makes it attractive to both the textual diachronic and ethnographic synchronic dimensions It will be of interest to specialist and non specialist academic readers including scholars and students of South Asian religions mainly Hinduism and Buddhism Tantric traditions and Southeast Asian religions as well as Asian and global folk religion shamanism and magic
