Indigenous Bodies Jacqueline Fear-Segal, Rebecca Tillett, 2013-09-30 This interdisciplinary collection of essays by both Natives and non Natives explores presentations and representations of indigenous bodies in historical and contemporary contexts Recent decades have seen a wealth of scholarship on the body in a wide range of disciplines Indigenous Bodies extends this scholarship in exciting new ways bringing together the disciplinary expertise of Native studies scholars from around the world The book is particularly concerned with the Native body as a site of persistent fascination colonial oppression and indigenous agency along with the endurance of these legacies within Native communities At the core of this collection lies a dual commitment to exposing numerous and diverse disempowerments of indigenous peoples and to recognizing the many ways in which these same people retained and or reclaimed agency Issues of reviewing relocating and reclaiming bodies are examined in the chapters which are paired to bring to light juxtapositions and connections and further the transnational development of indigenous studies

Jaune Quick-to-See Smith Carolyn Kastner, 2013-10-15 The first full length critical analysis of the paintings of Jaune Quick to See Smith this book focuses on Smith s role as a modernist in addition to her status as a wellknown Native American artist With close readings of Smith s work Carolyn Kastner shows how Smith simultaneously contributes to and critiques American art and its history Smith has distinguished herself as a modernist both in her pursuit of abstraction and her expressive technique but too often her identity as a Native American artist has overshadowed these aspects of her work Addressing specific themes in Smith s career Kastner situates Smith within specific historical and cultural moments of American art comparing her work to the abstractions of Kandinsky and Mir as well as to the pop art of Rauschenberg and Johns She discusses Smith s appropriation of pop culture icons like the Barbie doll reimagined by the artist as Barbie Plenty Horses As Kastner considers how Smith constructs each new series of artworks within the artistic social and political discourse of its time she defines her contribution to American modernism and its history Discussing the ways in which Smith draws upon her cultural heritage both Native and non Native Kastner demonstrates how Smith has expanded the definitions of American and modernist art

Smith and Veomanee Douangdala Counteremory April L. O'Brien, James Chase Sanchez, 2025 Counteremory A Rhetoric of Resistance investigates the interdisciplinary dimensions of counteremory through a rhetorical lens by drawing upon a mixed methodological approach that includes site based analysis participant observation textual analysis and historiography The authors apply these approaches to physical locations such as memorial sites and museums but also in digital spaces like music videos tv shows and maps to show the different ways that counteremory may exist Engaged Resistance Dean Rader, 2011-04-01 From Sherman Alexie s films to the poetry and fiction of Louise Erdrich and Leslie Marmon Silko to the paintings of Jaune Quick To See Smith and the sculpture of Edgar Heap of Birds Native American movies literature and art have become increasingly influential garnering critical praise and enjoying mainstream popularity Recognizing that the time has come for a critical assessment of this exceptional artistic output and its significance to American Indian and American issues Dean Rader offers the first interdisciplinary examination of how American Indian artists filmmakers and writers tell their own stories Beginning with rarely seen photographs documents and paintings from the Alcatraz Occupation in 1969 and closing with an innovative reading of the National Museum of the American Indian Rader initiates a conversation about how Native Americans have turned to artistic expression as a means of articulating cultural sovereignty autonomy and survival Focusing on figures such as author director Sherman Alexie Flight Face and Smoke Signals artist Jaune Quick To See Smith director Chris Eyre Skins author Louise Erdrich Jacklight The Last Report on the Miracles at Little No Horse sculptor Edgar Heap of Birds novelist Leslie Marmon Silko sculptor Allen Houser filmmaker and actress Valerie Red Horse and other writers including Joy Harjo LeAnne Howe and David Treuer Rader shows how these artists use aesthetic expression as a means of both engagement with and resistance to the dominant U S culture Raising a constellation of new questions about Native cultural production Rader greatly increases our understanding of what aesthetic modes of resistance can accomplish that legal or political actions cannot as well as why Native peoples are turning to creative forms of resistance to assert deeply held ethical values Shakespearean Subversions Richard Hillman, 1992 This book traces manifestations of trickery and subversion across the Shakespearean canon in such a way as to bring together several diverse strands of critical thought By isolating a principle of subversiveness that cuts across the standard categories Richard Hillman shows a relation amongst otherwise disparate aspects of the plays and delineates broad patterns of development In Shakespearean Subversions discussion of such obviously subversive character types as the Clown the Fool and the Machiavellian villain is incorporated into a broader concern with disruptive energy not as a thematic motif but as a generative influence on textual production Hillman suggests that this influence may be exercised paradoxically through the counter claims of social order The book situates this central idea in relation to a number of theoretical positions including New Historicism Cultural Materialism and Bakhtin s concept of the carnivalesque The primary conceptual anchor is supplied by recent anthropological interpretations of the folklore figure known as the Trickster The subsequent plan of the book is wide ranging there is discussion of almost every play with some unusual associations across boundaries of genre and a number of radically unconventional specific interpretations Shakespearean Subversions will appeal to specialists and to any reader with a serious interest in Shakespearean drama American Indian Quarterly, 2008 Studies in American Indian Literatures, 2007 American Indian Art Magazine, 2003 Loyal Subversion Axel Fair-Schulz, 2009 Artyear 1997, 1997 Aurora, 2005 Internal Security and Subversion Library of Congress. Dimensions of Native America Jehanne Teilhet-Fisk, Robin Franklin Nigh, 1998 From the introduction The collision and reconciliation of meanings and interpretations found in the arts of and by Native Americans is the theme that dominates Dimensions of Native America the Contact Zone Arts change through cultural drift or through a form of acculturation or contact with a foreign culture This exhibition focuses on the Native American arts that changed as a result of contact with Euroamericans through acculturation or assimilation At the same time Euroamerican art also changed through contact with

Native American cultures The exhibition is concerned with those acculturated art forms made by both Native Americans and Euroamericans that deliberately converge with and often appropriate each other's cultural properties New concepts of technology in making art new media new subject matter new styles and new or different canons of aesthetics that were absent in a pre contact situation for the Native and non Native are now integrated into the visual and performing arts By focusing on the acculturated arts this exhibition will provide our multi cultural community with a framework for better understanding and appreciating how these arts express fertile new ideas that are integrated into the matrix of tribe culture or society A further objective is to question the accuracy and intentions of the Western artists particularly from the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries who appropriated cultural property from the different American Indian tribes making visual constructions of them in alignment with the prevailing objectives of the dominant culture at that time These arts can then be compared with the visual constructions made by contemporary North American Indian and non Indian artists of the late twentieth century whose internationally recognized works address in avant garde terms what it means to construct ethnic identities and cultural experiences that can and have led to misrepresentations of cultural truths and stereotypes This exhibition is the effort of a group of enthusiastic undergraduates and graduates who took in the spring of 1996 my art history course on the arts and cultures of the Southwest the Pueblo and Navajo Din peoples Since Florida State University has identified with and valorized the achievements of the Florida Seminole Tribe the group felt it fitting for FSU students to organize and develop a campus exhibition addressing aspects of past and present American Indian art and culture Working under extraordinary time constraints and limited funding these six undergraduates and eleven graduates never wavered in their commitment to this project All of the students felt the need to see the arts and visit the cultural areas they were writing about
