Practical Guide to Infant and Preschool Assessment in Special Education Judith A. Bondurant-Utz, Lenore B. Luciano, 1994 Ecological Approaches to Clinical and Community Psychology William A. O'Connor, Bernard Lubin, 1984-05-14 Presents major approaches to assessment and intervention from an ecosystems perspective Brings together for the first time the most influential models of ecological and systems approaches to human behavior applied to the practice of mental health concentrating on applications useful for the mental health practitioner Deals with assessment treatment service delivery and prevention in a clinical setting Organized into four sections covering individuals families the community and sociocultural and cross cultural systems Neonatal Network, 1982 Assessing Young Children with Special Needs Susan M. Benner, 1992 Parent-Child Interaction Ronald W. Henderson, 2013-10-22 Parent Child Interaction Theory Research and Prospects is intended a to provide a synthesis of a segment of this growing body of literature on interrelationships between children and their parents b to examine the theoretical implications of this research c to review and assess common methodological approaches to the study of home environmental influences on the development of children and d to identify directions future research must take if our understanding of family influences and their place in a broader sociocultural context is to be extended The book is organized into three parts Part I examines theory and research on major aspects of parent child influence processes Part II examines the methods employed in research on family environments and considers the unique features that distinguish research on home environmental influences from traditional educational research Part III provides different perspectives on the application of psychological knowledge to socialization processes This book is intended for educational and developmental psychologists with interests in socialization processes as well as for practitioners who design parental programs that minimize discontinuities between competing socialization influences This volume will also prove useful in graduate courses in educational developmental and community psychology as a reference for professionals involved in school psychology school administration and pupil personnel work and for psychologists and social workers involved in youth service agencies child guidance diagnostic clinics parent education and family therapy Handbook of Marriage and the Family Suzanne K. Steinmetz, Marvin B. Sussman, 2013-11-11 The lucid straightforward Preface of this Handbook by the two editors and the comprehensive perspectives offered in the Introduction by one of them leave little for a Foreword to add It is therefore limited to two relevant but not intrinsically related points vis a vis research on marriage and the family in the interval since the first Handbook Christensen 1964 appeared namely the impact on this research of the politicization of the New Right and of the Feminist Enlightenment beginning in the mid sixties about the time of the first Handbook In the late 1930s Willard Waller noted Fifty years or more ago about 1890 most people had the greatest respect for the institution called the family and wished to learn nothing whatever about it Everything that concerned the life of men and women and their children was shrouded from the light Today much of that has been changed Gone is the concealment of the way in which life begins gone the irrational sanctity of the home The aura of sentiment which once protected the family from discussion clings to it no more We want to learn as much about it as we can and to understand it as thoroughly as possible for there is a rising recognition in America that vast numbers of its families are sick from internal frustrations and from external buffeting We are engaged in the process of reconstructing our family institutions through criticism and discussion 1938 pp 3 4 Assessing Infants and Preschoolers with Special Needs Mary E.
