The Second Part Scriptores Syri:

New Narratives for Old Anthony Briggman, Ellen Scully, 2022-06-17 Guilds and conferences have grown up around historical theology yet no volume has ever been dedicated to the definition and illustration of the method undergirding historical theology This volume both defines and illustrates the methodology of historical theology especially as it relates to the study of early Christianity and situates historical theology among other methodological approaches to early Christianity including confessional apologetics constructive theology and socio cultural history Historical theology as a discipline stands in contrast to these other approaches to the study of early Christianity In contrast to systematic or constructive approaches it remains essentially historical with a desire to elucidate the past rather than speak to the present In contrast to socio historical approaches it remains essentially theological with a concern to value and understand the full complexity of the abstract thought world that stands behind the textual tradition of early Christian theology Moreover historical theology is characterized by the methodological presupposition that unless good reason exists to think otherwise the theological accounts of the ancient church articulate the genuine beliefs of their authors The significance of this volume lies in the methodological definition it offers The strength of this volume lies in the fact that its definition of the historical method of studying theology is not the work of a single mind but that of over twenty respected scholars many of whom are leaders in the field The volume begins with an introductory essay that orients readers to various approaches to early Christian literature it moves to two technical essays that define the historical method of studying early Christian theology and then it illustrates the practice of this method with more than twenty essays that cover a period stretching from the first century to the dawn of the seventh

Isaac of Nineveh's Ascetical Eschatology Jason Scully, 2017 This volume discusses the development of Isaac of Nineveh's eschatology through an examination of his use of Syriac source material

The Prayers of Saint Isaac of Nineveh Sebastian Brock, 2024-08-30 Fairacres Publications 216 The scholarly investigations and translations of Prof Sebastian Brock have been largely responsible for bringing Saint Isaac of Nineveh also known as Isaac the Syrian to public attention Isaac was a seventh century Syriac Christian bishop and monastic author from Beth Qatraye in the region of Qatar He is best known for his writings on Christian asceticism This selection of Isaac's prayers taken from the three collections of his Discourses is elegantly translated by Dr Brock into accessible English bringing the thought and prayer of one of the great Fathers of the Church to modern readers Their simplicity and sincerity have a surprising beauty and relevance to our Christian journey

The Church and Her Scriptures Catherine Brown Tkacz, Douglas Kries, 2022-03-22 In the nearly two millennia since the resurrection of Jesus can coherence be found within the ways Christians of different ethnicities have approached the Bible How does one seek guidance in understanding the Scriptures and then draw on that experience to understand oneself and the world In The Church and Her Scriptures the ancient diversity of Greek Latin and Syriac speaks through for instance Gregory of Nyssa Augustine of Hippo and Jacob of Serugh The witness and voices of women as recorded in the Book of Daniel and the Gospels themselves are examined Reanimated through ancient sources the daily prayer life and holy death of Macrina the Younger philosopher of God attest the contemplative power of the laity The Psalms so interwoven in her life prove to be vitalizing for Christians Their example inspired new psalms in the Epistles Typology recurred fed by Jesus s teaching and this mode of exegesis and key examples of it are likewise respected in this volume Limning the framework for all this is Patrick Hartin s magisterial essay on Dei Verbum the Vatican II document on the Bible Reading the Way to the Netherworld Ilinca Tanaseanu-Döbler, Gabriela Ryser, 2016-12-05 The volume focuses on the various representations of the Beyond in later Antiquity a period of intense interaction and competition between various religious traditions and ideals of education The concepts and images clustering around the Beyond form a crucial focal point for understanding the dynamics of religion and education in later Antiquity Although Christianity gradually supersedes the pagan traditions the literary representations of the Beyond derived from classical literature and transmitted through the texts read at school show a remarkable persistence they influence Christian late antique writers and are still alive in medieval literature of the East and West A specifically Christian Beyond develops only gradually and coexists subsequently with pagan ideas which in turn vary according to the respective literary and philosophical contexts Thus the various conceptualisations of the great existential unknown serves here as a point of reference for mirroring the changes and continuities in Imperial and Late Antique religion education and culture and opening up further perspectives into the Medieval world Isaac of Nineveh (Isaac the Syrian) Isaac (Ninivita), 1995 Isaac of Nineveh \(Isaac the Syrian\), 'the Second Part', Chapters IV-XLI: English translation Isaac (Bishop of Nineveh), 1995 The Apocryphal Sunday Uta Heil, 2023-10-17 A range of apocryphal and pseudepigraphic texts from Late Antiquity points to the importance of Sunday as a holiday for baptized Christians First and foremost is the so called Letter from Heaven which has experienced a broad and long lasting reception up to modern times although it was also criticized as a forgery from its beginning Unfortunately these texts have not received sufficient attention so far This volume presents various versions of the Letter from Heaven as well as other texts the pseudepigraphic Acts of the Synod of Caesarea pseudepigraphic sermons of Eusebius of Alexandria John Chrysostom and Basil of Caesarea passages from the Didascalia or Diataxis of Jesus Christ the Second Apocryphal Apocalypse of John the Visio Pauli a sermon of Sophronius of Jerusalem and the Apocalypse of Anastasia together with a translation and commentary An introduction tells the story of this letter and integrates it and the other texts into the cultural history of Sunday It becomes clear that Sunday as a day of rest and a feast day was not in the foreground of the development of an ecclesiastical festival calendar for a long time although Emperor Constantine enacted a law on holiday rest on Sunday in 321 CE Sunday rather marks the end of the Christianization of time and the calendar when Easter Pentecost Christmas and martyrs feasts were already taken for granted The authors of these texts obviously wanted to accelerate this process which is why an anonymous person even resorted to presenting Christ himself as the author of this letter Here severe punishments are threatened to all who do not observe Sunday who work as if it were a weekday and who skip worship The broad tradition shows that the letter was read and distributed despite all the criticism and was even turned into an early form of a chain letter
