Lewis,2025-03-13 An overview of the life and controversial teachings of W Carl Ketcherside 1908 1989 as reflected in his journal Mission Messenger and the numerous books he published over the years Much of what Ketcherside wrote can be found in the writings of the fathers of the Stone Campbell restoration movement from which this book quotes extensively in support of his position It is significant to note that division among Christians in early nineteenth century America arose from differences in doctrinal deductions or interpretations as expressed in various creeds The Campbells proposed that such deductions referred to as opinions should never be used as tests of Christian fellowship In the twentieth century division among Churches of Christ was and continues to be caused by differences in doctrinal interpretations as found in the various journals and other publications of each group Ketcherside argued that such doctrines should never be used as tests of Christian fellowship He based his position on scriptural premises set forth in numerous books and essays Additionally he cited the fathers of the Stone Campbell Movement as evidence that Churches of Christ had abandoned the principles of restoration and reverted to the divisiveness of early nineteenth century creedalism The shift in how Churches of Christ view doctrinal differences began in 1889 with the proclamation and publication of the Sand Creek Illinois Declaration by Daniel Sommer which he titled An Address and Declaration reversing the title of Thomas Campbell s Declaration and Address of 1809 This is a pre publication copy of The Essential W Carl Ketcherside The Ketcherside Collection of supporting documents referenced in the book has not yet been set up by the site administrator However documents referred to in the book as part of that collection may be found on Archive org listed individually by title
