Two Masons:

Records of the Hole Craft and Fellowship of Masons Edward Conder, 1894 British Freemasonry, 1717-1813
Volume 5 Robert Peter, 2016-10-14 Freemasonry was a major cultural and social phenomenon and a key element of the Enlightenment. It was to have an international influence across the globe. This primary resource collection charts a key period in the development of organized Freemasonry culminating in the formation of a single United Grand Lodge of England. The secrecy that has surrounded Freemasonry has made it difficult to access information and documents about the organization and its adherents in the past. This collection is the result of extensive archival research and transcription and highlights the most significant themes associated with Freemasonry. The documents are drawn from masonic collections, private archives, and libraries worldwide. The majority of these texts have never before been republished. Documents include rituals, some written in code, funeral services, sermons, songs, certificates, an engraved list of lodges, letters, pamphlets, theatrical prologues and epilogues, and articles from newspapers and periodicals. This collection will enable researchers to identify many key masons for the first time. It will be of interest to students of Freemasonry, the Enlightenment, and researchers in eighteenth-century studies. Amor, Evelyn Lord, 2020-05-01 A tribute to a local history giant exploring themes of time, place, and community in Eastern England. Dr David Dymond, a luminary in local history, is honored in this collection of essays by colleagues, friends, and students. These essays present new research spanning from the medieval era to the 20th century with a focus on Eastern England. They embody Dymond's inclusive philosophy, integrating meticulous primary source analysis with sensitivity to broader community influences. Contributors delve into medieval religion, trade, and industry in Eastern England offering insights into local elites and social dynamics The collection culminates with studies of 19th and 20th century commerce and culture This diverse material provides a rich resource for anyone interested in local history reflecting the breadth of Dymond s scholarship Harvey's Essentials of Arithmetic, with Everyday Problems Relating to Agriculture, Commerce and Other Vocations ... Lorenzo Dow Harvey,1914 House documents ,1885
