Maxwell's Demon 2 Entropy, Classical and Quantum Information, Computing Harvey Leff, 2002-12-13 Over 130 years ago James Clerk Maxwell introduced his hypothetical demon as a challenge to the scope of the second law of thermodynamics Fascination with the demon persisted throughout the development of statistical and quantum physics information theory and computer science and links have been established between Maxwell's demon and each of

The Thirst for Annihilation Nick Land, 2002-11-01 An important literary and philosophical figure Georges Bataille has had a significant influence on other French writers such as Foucault Derrida and Baudrillard The Thirst for Annihilation is the first book in English to respond to Bataille's writings In no way though is Nick Land's book an attempt to appropriate Bataille's writings to a secular intelligibility or to compromise with the aridity of academic discourse rather it is written as a communion Theoretical issues in philosophy sociology psychodynamics politics and poetry are discussed but only as stepping stones into the deep water of textual sacrifice where words pass over into the broken voice of death Cultural modernity is diagnosed down to its Kantian bedrock with its transcendental philosophy of the object but Bataille's writings cut violently across this tightly disciplined reading to reveal the strong underlying currents that bear us towards chaos and dissolution the violent impulse to escape the thirst for annihilation

Design as Aesthetic Communication Asghar Talaye Minai, 1989 The book presents a theory of design as aesthetic communication which tends to bring design and specifically architecture in phase with contemporary views of the universe society and culture expressed by modern physics biology information theory cybernetics and current technology It stresses the concept that within the seeming randomness of the twentieth century life there is an order that is more meaningful than the order imposed by formal rationality It puts forward an alternative model for the traditional view which supposes that aesthetic judgement and design processes are linear progressions Design is viewed here as the process resulting from attempts in communicating symbolic information
