The Green Building Bottom Line (GreenSource Books; Green Source) Martin Melaver, Phyllis Mueller, 2008-12-01 What are the real costs and real benefits of building green As any builder knows cost estimation and reality are often two very different things The Green Building

Bottom Line makes the case for green building by providing the insights and data that demonstrate the true costs and benefits of building green. It's a why to and a how to that explores everything from the ground up. The Green Building Bottom Line puts an entire development team at the table to better understand both the issues encountered and what's behind the perceived price premium for building green. This candid and transparent account explores every aspect of green development on groundbreaking projects from the nation's first all-retail LEED core and shell project to an innovative multitenanted LEED Existing Buildings office project to a mixed-use hotel-retail-condo project in a transitional urban market. The authors focus on such issues as values, culture, life cycle costs, insurance, financing, coordinating a team, marketing, and negotiating leases. Includes Detailed case studies of green building projects start to finish. Information on financial, legal, and operational aspects of the job. The real-world costs of green building, not unrealistic estimates. A behind-the-scenes look at the LEED building process. Unique insight from those who have actually done the work. The Green Building Bottom Line covers Economical and ecological benefits, Auditing sustainability in existing buildings, Financial benefits of green tenancy, Loan analysis, Insurance underwriting, Expense reduction, Writing a green lease, Converting an existing building, Green retail, Brokering sustainability, Marketing, HR practices and processes.

One Proud Legacy, Two Powerful Companies (EBOOK) McGraw-Hill Education, 2012-10-22. In celebrating its 125th anniversary, McGraw-Hill examines its past and looks ahead to a bright future. One Proud Legacy, Two Powerful Companies traces McGraw-Hill's roots in the emerging railroad industry and explores the remarkable opportunities to come as it separates into two independent companies, one focused on education, the other on the global capital and commodity markets. Following the sale of McGraw-Hill Education, expected early 2013, the company's shareholders are anticipated to rename the company McGraw-Hill Financial. The new company will include some of the most well-known names in finance and business, including Standard & Poor's S P Capital IQ, S P Dow Jones Indices, Platts, and J D Power and Associates. McGraw-Hill Financial and McGraw-Hill Education will continue the mission set out by founder James H. McGraw in 1888: give people the insight and essential intelligence they need to make decisions vital for their future.
