The Difficult Wheel:

The Difficult Wheel Betty Adcock,1995 In The Difficult Wheel Betty Adcock writes about time about losing the past yet never being able to lose it Hers are poems about vanishings about grief and about folly our absurd attempt to cancel time and space to abstract ourselves out of history and out of nature and to distract ourselves from death s specter Adcock s verses fuse formal pattern with the chaos of rapid change music with grief the world s presences deer bird fox all that shakes the shuddering loom with the absences that time has dreamed and language must confront Out of her personal losses Adcock imagines the larger ones we are facing at the end of the twentieth century But there are celebrations here too a simple field of wild flowers on an Aegean island becomes music memory a pearl of great price Tramway and Railway World ,1917
