Vets Daughter:

The Vet's Daughter Barbara Comyns, 2003-04-30 The Vet's Daughter combines shocking realism with a visionary edge The vet lives with his bedridden wife and shy daughter Alice in a sinister London suburb He works constantly captive to a strange private fury and treats his family with brutality and contempt After his wife's death the vet takes up with a crass needling woman who tries to refashion Alice in her own image And yet as Alice retreats ever deeper into a dream world she discovers an extraordinary secret power of her own Harrowing and haunting like an unexpected cross between Flannery O'Connor and Stephen King The Vet's Daughter is a story of outraged innocence that culminates in a scene of appalling triumph

Barbara Comyns Avril Horner, 2024-03-19 The extraordinary twentieth century writer Barbara Comyns led a life as captivating as the narratives she spun This pioneering biography reveals the journey of a woman who experienced hardship and single motherhood before the age of thirty but went on to publish a sequence of novels that are unique in the English language Comyns turned her hand to many jobs in order to survive from artist's model to restoring pianos Hundreds of unpublished letters reveal an occasionally desperate but resourceful and witty woman whose complicated life ranged from enduring poverty when young to mixing with spivs spies and high society While working as a housekeeper in her mid thirties Comyns began transforming the bleak episodes of her life into compelling fictions streaked with surrealism and deadpan humour The Vet's Daughter 1959 championed by Graham Greene brought her fame although her use of the gothic and macabre divided readers and reviewers This biography not only excavates Comyns's life but also reclaims her fiction providing a timely reassessment of her literary contribution It sheds new light on a remarkable author who deftly captured the complexities of human life

Reflections Into My Soul Francine N. D'Aprile, 2009-03 Through my journey in life I have met many people Everyone has a story to tell sometimes our lives take us into so many directions that at the end of the journey you look back and wonder where have all the years gone by The pathway that led me to this book took me in many directions in my life Writing Poetry has always been a passion of mine As I take you into my soul you will come to realize that deep within ourselves we are all the same From my years in Hawaii to the love of a United States Marine Corps Vietnam Vet I continue Along Life's Journey and then I hit the lowest point in my life My poetry continues with a mixture of inspirational thoughts and other poems At the end of the day may you be inspired by Reflections into My Soul and write your own poetry
