Action Research in Organisations Jean McNiff,Jack Whitehead,2002-01-04 The current orthodoxy is that knowledge is the most powerful resource for organisational success So how can managers develop the appropriate knowledge base to make their organisations grow The answer lies in action research Action research is increasingly perceived and used as a powerful methodology to promote professional awareness and development However there are very few texts that demonstrate how this can be utilised to promote management and organisational improvement or that emphasise the reflective nature of improving professionalism Action Research in Organisations fills this gap Aimed at both practising managers and university students alike key features of this title include the location of management and organisational theory within a framework examination of the principles and practice of action research real world examples and case studies of people attempting to improve their own situations through action research Unity ,1905 The Chautauquan ,1893 Mainsprings of Men Whiting Williams,1925 The American Produce Review ,1921 The Goat World ,1930 Becoming Yourself
