Radio Drama Martin Grams, 2000 The free standing radios of the middle decades of the 20th century were invitingly rotund and proudly displayed nothing like today s skinny televisions hidden inside entertainment centers Radios were the hub of the family s after dinner activities and children and adults gorged themselves on western adventure series like The Lone Ranger police dramas such as Calling All Cars and the varied offerings of The Cavalcade of America Shows often aired two or three times a week and many programs were broadcast for more than a decade comprising hundreds of episodes This book includes more than 300 program logs many appearing in print for the first time drawn from newspapers script files in broadcast museums records from NBC ABC and CBS and the personal records of series directors Each entry contains a short broadcast history that includes directors writers and actors and the broadcast dates and airtimes A comprehensive index rounds out the work

Now Playing at Canterbury Vance Bourjaily, 1977-06 The plot is launched by English Professor Rigby Short whose opera libretto 4000 is about to be performed at a large Midwestern university The novel s cast is composed of a gaggle of graduate students some local singers and several professionals from the outside An esteemed Japanese conductor appears on the scene along with a wisecracking director from Philadelphia What happens Short is asked when such a diverse group comes together They tell lies So they do splendidly There is the yarn about the innocent temptress from Biloxi and the odd revenge she takes on the man who steals her away That one is topped by the tale of the fastest Jeep in the world and a deadly race in the Mexican foothills A graduate student contributes a chiller about a pack of man eating cats in his home town When they are not swapping whoppers and case histories the members of the troupe couple and uncouple in scenes that manage to be both erotic and clinically detached Jealousies arise and a small epidemic of paranoia breaks out as opening night approaches
