Thelle, Terje Stordalen, Mervyn E.J. Richardson,2015-05-19 In New Perspectives on Old Testament Prophecy and History colleagues students and friends of Hans M Barstad offer essays in honour of his esteemed career in biblical studies Contributions on prophecy include the debate on prophets as historical figures the biblical books of Isaiah Ezekiel Hosea Amos and Micah and issues of methodology and interpretation Essays devoted to history address various historiographic issues as well as specific historical topics such as the monarchy in ancient Israel the relationship of Judah to Edom and the ritual of reading the law In ways that reflect Hans Barstad s innovative insights and methodological critiques this collection of essays probes beyond the oft trodden paths of biblical studies and challenges the status quo within the field Life, Death, and Meaning David Benatar,2016-03-28 Do our lives have meaning Should we create more people Is death bad Should we commit suicide Would it be better to be immortal Should we be optimistic or pessimistic Since Life Death and Meaning Key Philosophical Readings on the Big Questions first appeared David Benatar s distinctive anthology designed to introduce students to the key existential questions of philosophy has won a devoted following among users in a variety of upper level and even introductory courses While many philosophers in the continental tradition those known as existentialists have engaged these issues at length and often with great popular appeal English speaking philosophers have had relatively little to say on these important questions Yet the methodology they bring to philosophical questions can and occasionally has been applied usefully to existential questions This volume draws together a representative sample of primarily English speaking philosophers reflections on life s big questions divided into six sections covering 1 the meaning of life 2 creating people 3 death 4 suicide 5 immortality and 6 optimism and pessimism These key readings are supplemented with helpful introductions study questions and suggestions for further reading making the material accessible and interesting for students In short the book provides a singular introduction to the way that philosophy has dealt with the big questions of life that we are all tempted to ask Why People Die by Suicide Thomas Joiner,2005 Drawing on extensive clinical and epidemiological evidence as well as personal experience Thomas Joiner provides the most coherent and persuasive explanation ever given of why and how people overcome life s strongest instinct self preservation

A Concordance to the Poems of Robert Browning Leslie Nathan Broughton, Benjamin Franklin Stelter,1925

Taking Life Torbjorn Tannsjo, 2015-08-03 When and why is it right to kill When and why is it wrong Torbjorn Tannsjo examines three theories on the ethics of killing in this book deontology a libertarian moral rights theory and utilitarianism The implications of each theory are worked out for different kinds of killing trolley cases murder capital punishment suicide assisted death abortion killing in war and the killing of animals These implications are confronted with our intuitions in relation to them and our moral intuitions are examined in turn Only those intuitions that survive an understanding of how we have come to hold them are seen as considered intuitions The idea is that the theory that can best explain the content of our considered intuitions gains inductive support from them We must transcend our narrow cultural horizons and avoid certain cognitive mistakes in order to hold considered intuitions In this volume suitable for courses in ethics and applied ethics Tannsjo argues that in the final analysis utilitarianism can best account for and explain our considered intuitions about all these kinds of killing
