Antonella Pocecco,Estrella Gualda,Emiliana Mangone,2023-11-27 Starting from the central importance of memory in contemporary societies this book encourages a transdisciplinary reflection on how the presentification of the past is never a simple reenactment but corresponds to the interaction between memory and cultural sensitiveness present beliefs and needs expectations and forecasts for the future It studies cultural re construction through collective stories including academic debates media narratives collective mobilizations state narratives of history architectural reconstructions and artistic expressions It looks at how technological innovations have profoundly changed the practices of conservation and dissemination of collective memory with particular reference to cultural digitization Finally it shows that the relevance and selection of events the organization of connections and cross references between past present and future as well as the importance of diversified collective imaginaries are the keys to narrative constructions of memory that prove to be sensitive and decisive for its continuity and its intergenerational transmission This interdisciplinary collection is for students and scholars of the social sciences cultural studies and the humanities interested in memory studies Revista de la Universidad
