The British Barbershopper Liz Garnett, 2017-07-05 Barbershop singing is a distinctive and under documented facet of Britain s musical landscape Imported from the USA in the 1960s it has developed into an active and highly organized musical community characterized by strong social support structures and a proselytizing passion for its particular style This style is defined within the community in largely music theoretical terms and is both highly prescriptive and continually contested but there is also a host of performance traditions that articulate barbershop s identity as a distinct and specific genre Liz Garnett documents and analyses the social and musical practices of this specialized community of music makers and extends this analysis to theorize the relationship between music and self identity The book engages with a range of sociological and musicological theoretical frameworks in order to explore the role of harmony ritual sexual politics performance styles and tag singing in barbershop

This analysis shows how musical style and cultural discourses can be seen to interact in the formation of identity Garnett provides the first in depth scholarly insight into the British barbershop community and contributes to ongoing debates in the semiotics and the sociology of music The Musical Times & Singing-class Circular ,1912 I Sing for I Cannot Be Silent June Hadden Hobbs,1997-10-15 Evangelical churches sing hymns written between 1870 and 1920 so often that many children learn them by rote before they are able to read religious texts A cherished part of communal Christian life and an important and effective way to teach doctrine today these hymns served an additional social purpose in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries they gave evangelical women a voice in their churches When the sacred music business expanded after the Civil War writing hymn texts gave publishing opportunities to women who were forbidden to preach teach or pray aloud in mixed groups Authorized by oral expression gospel hymns allowed women to articulate alternative spiritual models within churches that highly valued orality These feminized hymns are the focus of I Sing for I Cannot Be Silent Drawing upon her own experience as a Baptist June Hadden Hobbs argues that the evangelical tradition is an oral tradition it is not anti intellectual but antiprint Evangelicals rely on memory and spontaneous oral improvisation hymns serve to aid memory and permit interaction between oral and written language By comparing male and female hymnists use of rhetorical forms Hobbs shows how women utilized the only oral communication allowed to them in public worship Gospel hymns permitted women to use a complex system of images already associated with women and domesticity This feminized hymnody challenged the androcentric value system of evangelical Christianity by making visible the contrasting masculine and feminine versions of Christianity When these hymns were sung in church women s voices and opinions moved out of the private sphere and into public religion The hymns are so powerful that they are suppressed by some contemporary fundamentalists today In I Sing for I Cannot Be Silent June Hadden Hobbs employs an interdisciplinary mix of feminist literary analysis social history rhetoric and composition theory hymnology autobiography and theology to examine hymns central to worship in most evangelical churches today Graphic Showbiz Nanabanyin Dadson,2011-04-28 The Sabbath Recorder ,1929 The School Song Book Osbourne McConathy,1930 The Boston Medical and Surgical Journal ,1905 The Code of Handsome Lake, the Seneca Prophet Handsome Lake,Arthur Caswell Parker,1913 Report New York State Museum,New York State Museum and Science Service,1914 Annual Report New York State Museum,1914 These reports are made up of the reports of the director geologist paleontologist botanist and entomologist and museum Bulletins and Memoirs issued as advance sections of the reports N Y State Museum Bulletin 66 p 241 Documents of the Assembly of the State of New York New York (State).
