Speak Lord:

Speak Lord, I'm Listening Larry Kreider, 2008-10-01 Jesus said My sheep hear my voice but many Christians do not know how to hear from God In this practical story rich guidebook international teacher Larry Kreider shows believers how to develop a listening relationship with the Lord Speak Lord I m Listening explores the multiple ways Christians can hear the voice of God in today s world It offers real life examples of how God teaches His followers to listen Contains tips in each chapter for distinguishing His voice from the noise of Satan s interference Christians across the denominational spectrum will develop a closer and deeper relationship with God as they learn 50 unique ways to listen to Him You will realize that God was speaking to you all along but like the disciples on the road to Emmaus you didn t know it was Him The Complete Works of C. H. Spurgeon, Volume 10 Spurgeon, Charles H., Volume 10 Sermons 547 606 Charles Spurgeon 19 June 1834 31 January 1892 is one of the church s most famous preachers and Christianity s foremost prolific writers Called the Prince of Preachers he was one of England s most notable ministers for most of the second half of the nineteenth century and he still remains highly influential among Christians of different denominations today His sermons have spread all over the world and his many printed works have been cherished classics for decades In his lifetime Spurgeon preached to more than 10 million people often up to ten times each week He was the pastor of the congregation of the New Park Street Chapel later the Metropolitan Tabernacle in London for 38 years He was an inexhaustible author of various kinds of works including sermons commentaries an autobiography as well as books on prayer devotionals magazines poetry hymns and more Spurgeon was known to produce powerful sermons of penetrating thought and divine inspiration and his oratory and writing skills held his audiences spellbound Many Christians have discovered Spurgeon s messages to be among the best in Christian literature Edward Walford wrote in Old and New London Volume 6 1878 quoting an article from the Times regarding one of Spurgeon s meetings at Surrey Fancy a congregation consisting of 10 000 souls streaming into the hall mounting the galleries humming buzzing and swarming a mighty hive of bees eager to secure at first the best places and at last any place at all After waiting more than half an hour for if you wish to have a seat you must be there at least that space of time in advance Mr Spurgeon ascended his tribune To the hum and rush and trampling of men succeeded a low concentrated thrill and murmur of devotion which seemed to run at once like an electric current through the breast of every one present and by this magnetic chain the preacher held us fast bound for about two hours It is not my purpose to give a summary of his discourse It is enough to say of his voice that its power and volume are sufficient to reach every one in that vast assembly of his language that it is neither high flown nor homely of his style that it is at times familiar at times declamatory but always happy and often eloquent of his doctrine that neither the Calvinist nor the Baptist appears in the forefront of the battle which is waged by Mr Spurgeon with relentless animosity and with Gospel weapons against irreligion cant hypocrisy pride and those secret bosom sins which so easily beset a man in daily life and to sum up all in a word it is enough to say of the man himself that he impresses you with a perfect conviction of his sincerity More than a hundred years after his death Charles Spurgeon s legacy continues to effectively inspire the church around the world For this reason Delmarva Publications has chosen to republish the complete works of Charles Spurgeon Life Under the Baobab Tree Kenneth N. Ngwa, Aliou Cissé Niang, Arthur Pressley, 2023-09-05

Life Under the Baobab Tree Africana Studies and Religion in a Transitional Age is a compendium of innovating essays meticulously written by early and later diaspora people of African descent Their speech arises from the depth of their experiences under the Baobab tree and offers to the world voices of resilience newness resurrection hope and life Resolutely journeying on the trails of their ancestors they speak about setbacks and forward looking movements of liberation social transformation and community formation The volume is a carefully woven conversation of intellectual substance and structure across time space and spirituality that is quintessentially Africana in its centering of methodological theoretical epistemological and hermeneutical complexity that assumes nonlinear and dialogical approaches to developing liberating epistemologies in the face of imperialism colonialism racism and religious intolerance A critical part of this conversation is a reconceptualization and reconfiguration of the concept of religion in its colonial and imperial forms Life Under the Baobab Tree examines how Africana peoples understand their corporate experiences of the divine not as religion apart from its intimate connections to social realities of communal health economics culture politics environment violence war and dynamic community belonging To that end Afro Pessimistic formulations of life placed in dialogic relation Afro Optimism Both realities constitute life under the Baobab tree and represent the sturdiness and variation that anchors the deep ruptures that have affected Africana life and the creative responses The metaphor and substance of the tree resists reductionist essentialist and assured conclusions about the nature of diasporic lived experiences both within the continent of Africa and in the African Diaspora
