Speaking Of Marriage:

Cracking the Communication Code Emerson Eggerichs,2008-04-01 Shows couples how to speak to each other and give mutual understanding to build a successful marriage Provided by publisher Let's Talk Marriage from God's Perspective ,Leo,Luciana Rhome,2022-08-10 Book Cover This book was written to point every husband and wife to the dolly that will help them with every heavy load that could ever be in their marriage teaching them to cast all their care on Him for He cares for us all 1 Peter 5 7 ensuring them that when they take everything to the manufacture of all things John 1 3 Colossians 1 16 even marriage they will find out how their marriage was designed and what it was meant to be and do from His perspective WOMEN PLANNING FOR MARRIAGE Patrick J. Hession,2014-06-24 One area for which too many people fail to prepare adequately is the selection of a potential lifemate Much is left to chance or infatuation This workbook provides a comprehensive look at the Scriptural Psychological and Behavioral principles involved in a lasting marital relationship with Jesus Christ as the center It offers you an in depth look at the factors you need to consider with eyes wide open Marriage is one of the most challenging but also most rewarding vocations if you should choose it The Church and Society are no stronger than the families that make them up This workbook is entirely self paced so you can read and work through the exercises on your own You will then be in a position to share them with a potential lifemate Intimate Relationships Across Boundaries Julia Moses,Julia Woesthoff,2021-05-16 This collection investigates intermarriage and related relationships around the world since the eighteenth century The contributors explore how intimate relationships challenged boundary crossings of various kinds social geographic religious ethnic To this end the volume considers a range of related issues Who participated in these unions How common were they and in which circumstances were they practised or banned Taking a global view the book also questions some of the categories behind these relationships For example how did geographical boundaries across national lines distinctions between colonies and metropolises or metaphors of the East and the West shape the treatment of intermarriage What role have social and symbolic boundaries such as presumed racial religious or socio economic divides played To what extent and how were those boundaries blurred in the eyes of contemporaries Not least how have bureaucracies and law contributed to the creation of boundaries preventing romantic unions Intimate relationships the contributors suggest brought into sharp relief assumptions not only about community and culture but also about the sanctity of the sphere of love and family The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of The History of the Family Speaking of marriage John A. O'BRIEN,1948 Lady's Realm ,1905 Germans on the Kenyan Coast Nina Berman,2017-01-16 Shed s light on the romantic psychosexual and psychosocial and economic entanglements that tie German tourists to their Kenyan hosts Daily Nation Diani a coastal town on the Indian Ocean is significantly defined by a large European presence that has spurred economic development and is also supported by close relationships between Kenyans and European immigrants and tourists Nina Berman looks carefully at the repercussions that these economic and social interactions have brought to life on the Kenyan coast She explores what happens when poorer and less powerful members of a community are forced to give way to profit based real estate development what it means when most of Diani s schools and water resources are supplied by funds from immigrants and what the impact of mixed marriages is on notions of kinship and belonging as well as the economy This unique story about a small Kenyan town also recounts a wider tale of opportunity oppression resilience exploitation domination and accommodation in a world of economic political and social change In this richly detailed book Nina Berman tracks the influx of thousands of German speaking tourists and residents especially in the 1990s and the making of a distinctive Kenyan European cultural enclave in the coastal community of Diani as many of these visitors choose to extend their stay as long term residents Ann Biersteker author of Masomo ya Kisasa Contemporary Readings in Swahili A n informative and thought provoking work that deserves to be read by scholars of Kenya and those interested in globalized structures of gentrification north south humanitarian assistance and love and romance in Africa African Studies Quarterly
