Speaking Cure A Novel:

Writing the Talking Cure Jeffrey Berman, 2019-05-01 A distinguished psychiatrist and psychotherapist Irvin D Yalom is also the United States most well known author of psychotherapy tales His first volume of essays Love's Executioner became an immediate best seller and his first novel When Nietzsche Wept continues to enjoy critical and popular success Yalom has created a subgenre of literature the therapy story where the therapist learns as much as if not more than the patient where therapy never proceeds as expected and where the therapist's apparent failure proves ultimately to be a success Writing the Talking Cure is the first book to explore all of Yalom's major writings Taking an interdisciplinary approach Jeffrey Berman comments on Yalom's profound contributions to psychotherapy and literature and emphasizes the recurrent ideas that unify his writings the importance of the therapeutic relationship therapist transparency here and now therapy the prevalence of death anxiety reciprocal healing and the idea of the wounded healer Throughout Berman discusses what Yalom can teach therapists in particular and the common and uncommon reader in general

Deceptive Fictions Ulrike Tancke, 2015-06-18 Deceptive Fictions Narrating Trauma and Violence in Contemporary Writing explores the widespread narrative concern with trauma and violence and their interactions with identity meaning ethics history memory and various other related issues in a selection of novels by prolific contemporary British and Irish writers Interrogating the strategic functions of trauma and violence the book argues that these texts can be read as counter narratives to or a backlash against still prevalent critical paradigms informed by poststructuralist and postmodern thought Trauma and violence are invoked as narrative tools to communicate the centrality of the body and of biological and material constraints on human actions This emphasis on reality and the experiential ties in with the novels consistent focus on the individual as an ethical agent and originator of meaning In so doing they signal a move in contemporary fiction towards a textual practice that can most fruitfully be approached along the lines of an individualistic evolutionary corporeal and experiential narratology which self consciously reflects on the manipulative potentials of narrative
