Specht Journal:

The Specht Journal Johann Friedrich Specht,1995-07-24 The Specht Journal is one of the major diaries written by Braunschweig military personnel during the Burgoyne campaign of the American Revolutionary War From the departure from Wolfenbuttel on February 22 1776 to the end on Winter Hill near Boston on November 9 1777 the narrator faithfully accounts for each day of the ill fated campaign He describes the astonishing affair at Ticonderoga the short battle at Hubbardton and the toilsome march south to Fort Miller via Forts Ann and Edward The campaign ends after two indecisive battles at Saratoga where Burgoyne without supplies and badly outnumbered has to sign a Convention with the victorious American commander Horatio Gates

Saratoga James S. Pula,2025-01-21 Often referred to as the turning point of the American Revolution the Saratoga Campaign has had much ink spilled about its causes leaders and consequences Less has been recorded about the individuals who participated in this political drama This book presents the experiences of the real people involved in the Saratoga Campaign from squabbling English politicians and ambitious generals both British and American to intercolonial jealousies Focusing on the testimonies of people who are largely overlooked this history sheds light on the most human aspects of the campaign so often forgotten
