Department. Office of the Comptroller,1990 The SBS in World War II Gavin Mortimer,2013-09-20 A gripping history of Britain s Special Boat Squadron in World War II drawing on veteran interviews and including rare photographs from the SAS Regimental Association The Special Boat Squadron was Britain s most exclusive Special Forces unit during World War II and yet its exploits have been largely forgotten This book tells its story Highly trained totally secretive and utterly ruthless the SBS was established as an entity in its own right in early 1943 Unlike its sister unit which numbered more than 1 000 men the SBS never comprised more than 100 Led by men such as the famed Victoria Cross recipient Anders Lassen the SBS went from island to island in the Mediterranean landing in the dead of night in small fishing boats and launching savage hit and run raids on the Germans Through unrivalled access to the archives of the SAS Regimental Association and interviews with the surviving members of the unit Gavin Mortimer has pieced together the dramatic feats of this elite fighting force In this new and updated paperback edition featuring additional content including new text and photographs the unit and its members are finally granted the recognition that they so richly deserve The Special Boat Squadron Philip Warner,1983

Night Fighters in France (SAS Operation) Shaun Clarke,2015-12-03 Ultimate soldier Ultimate mission But can the SAS distract the Nazis to allow airborne landings to go ahead Raiders from the Sea John Lodwick,2018-11-30 The Special Boat Service was a small force during World War II never more than about 300 men But that did not stop it from inflicting great damage on the enemy In the Mediterranean arena and in the Aegean which the Germans controlled after the fall of Greece and Crete this small commando force kept up a constant campaign of harassment thus pinning down enemy forces and preventing their joining other fronts They travelled by night to their targets using submarines small surface vessels or canoes with the commanders of the vessels often putting themselves in danger in order to help the men carry out their dangerous and secret missions They were reliant on the co operation of the fiercely independent Greeks and in particular the Cretans all working together in their common objective against the German invaders John Lodwick took part in the SBS Mediterranean campaign and writes from personal experience with the panache and verve of the squadron itself For it is more than the story of the remarkable men who made up the force men such as Anders Lassen the Dreadful Dane who was awarded a posthumous VC Fitzroy Maclean Eric Newby Jock Lapraik and Lord Jellicoe who commanded the squadron for almost two years and who contributed a memorable foreword to this memoir Strong determined individuals together the men of the Special Boat Service formed a deadly cohesive fighting force which contributed much to the war in the Mediterranean and to whom John Lodwick s book is an excitingly readable tribute Special Forces Book Sales, Inc.
Staff,Booksales,1990-07 Behind The Lines with The SBS Nicholas James Marshall,Robert Desmond Marshall,2025-11-25 Formed in 1940 as Special Boat Section and later amalgamated into 1st SAS Regiment as part of Colonel David Stirling's expansion of the famed SBS were a commando unit designed to carry out amphibious raids on Axis occupied territory during WW2. Originally referred to by Stirling as the Folboat Section and reconstituted as the Special Boat Squadron under the command of Captain Earl George Jellicoe, the SBS set about causing havoc in the enemy-held islands of the Aegean. This is the personal account of one man, Desmond Marshall, who in late 1943 was recruited as a signaller into L Squadron SBS. Written in the years following the war and undiscovered until over half a century later, it is only now this unique account of wartime life in the SBS is being revealed in his own words. Join Des and L Squadron on their daring adventures behind enemy lines in this detailed and riveting never-before-told story.
