"We had an update from the city council this morning," said Council Chair Chris Chubb, who is also the mayor's chief of staff.

"They're managing it," the mayor's office said. "The incident has not impacted the situation, but we do have a few additional details."

The city's website, which has been out of service since Monday, is expected to be back online by Tuesday.

City Council, however, continued to be in session as of Tuesday. The city's website is expected to be back online by Tuesday.
