

A large flock of pink flamingos is shown in a natural wetland environment. The birds are standing in shallow, blue water, surrounded by numerous green lily pads. The scene is captured in a soft, natural light, likely during the day. The flamingos are scattered throughout the frame, some standing tall and others leaning over. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and scenic.

The editors are frontline sustainable tourism advocates in Africa and the book's thematic content is derived from 30 inter-university seminars on sustainable tourism hosted by Sustainable Travel Tourism Agenda Kenya from 2017 to November 2019. These seminars involved the participation of 17 universities in Kenya, tourism operators, conservationists, developmentalists, investors, policy makers and students. Every chapter is a voice projecting aspirations for the responsible management of tourism in Africa and promoting the ideals of sustainable tourism that young people in Africa advocate for the industry's future.
