Wiener, Charles Bazerman, 2005-08 Reading Skills Handbook 9 e teaches the essential reading and study skills required for success in college The cornerstone of the Wiener Bazerman System Reading Skills Handbook 9 e retains the features that have made it a bestseller for more than twenty five years flexible format high interest readings clear explanations and a multitude of practice exercises The step by step approach encourages students to move with confidence from simple to more complex skills An anthology of readings helps students apply newly learned skills in selections drawn from books magazines and newspapers and including essays articles textbook pages journals fiction photographs illustrations cartoons advertisements and Web sites in short the wide range of reading opportunities available to today s readers at home or on the job The Longman Handbook for Writers and Readers with MLA Updates Christopher M.

Anson, Schwegler, 1999-08 The Reading Context Dorothy U. Seyler, 2003-07 The Reading Context provides extensive reading skills practice at a new value price of under 25 Designed for developmental reading courses Grades 9 The Reading Context emphasizes reading as a three step prepare read respond process The book starts where developing readers need to start with an explanation of the context created by author work and reader It also stresses the importance of thinking about who the writer is what the author s purpose is what kind of work students are about to read and what they can expect to gain from it Reading selections have been chosen to hold student interest while representing the kinds of material they will meet in college assignments textbook material from business to psychology from advertising to history from health to education Chapters are filled with short prose pieces for illustration and practice and each chapter concludes with two or three longer reading selections In each chapter clear explanations of each reading skill are supported by numerous exercises The Longman Sourcebook for Writing Program Administrators Irene Ward, William James Carpenter, 2008 The Longman Sourcebook for Writing Program Administrators serves as a reference work and handbook for those charged with administering writing programs at colleges and universities Both English Department Chairpersons and Directors of Writing Programs will find this an essential resource The book is also intended for graduate level courses in writing program administration serving as an introduction to the theory issues and practical problems of writing program administration

Reading Between the Lines JoAnn Yaworski, 2006 Focuses on inference and critical reading intended for developing readers This text foregrounds inference by discussing the skills and strategies required for critical thinking critical reading and reading comprehension Learning and study strategies are also discussed It teaches how to understand the varied levels of meaning in a line Efficient and Flexible Reading Kathleen T. McWhorter,2008 Encouraging students to read actively and critically to approach reading as a thinking process and to analyze their own reading and learning strategies Efficient and Flexible Readingteaches students how to vary their approach to written texts based on the material and their purpose for reading Efficient and Flexible Readingteaches students how to identify text structures and thought patterns for more efficient learning Emphasizing reading as an active thinking process the author presents systems for monitoring concentration comprehension and recall encouraging students to assess the reading assignment and to select the appropriate strategy to suit the situation Reading from the Inside Out Deborah Silvey,2002-12 A comprehensive examination of one of the twentieth century s most innovative writers and critics Bridging the Gap Brenda D. Smith,2008 Guide to College Reading Kathleen T. McWhorter,2002 Guide to College Reading focuses on the key areas of reading comprehension vocabulary improvement and textbook reading Critical thinking and metacognition are hallmarks of the McWhorter series Critical thinking is incorporated throughout the book in instruction exercises and readings Metacognitive activities include teaching readers how to evaluate their own learning styles to increase their ability to read college level material successfully Exercises that ask readers to respond by writing sentences and paragraphs after reading help make the critical connection between these two activities umerous diagrams and drawings help readers visualize how reading material can be organized High interest photographs and artwork appeal to the visual learner Chapter ending readings give immediate practice for chapter skills and aid in transferring these skills to actual reading situations Learning Style Tips reinforce material introduced earlier throughout the book and teach readers how to apply knowledge of their individual learning styles to learn new skills For those interested in developing their reading skills at the 6th 9th grade level Reading Instruction in America Barbara Ruth Peltzman,2015-10-02 The diversity of student populations in the United States presents educators with many challenges To provide effective reading instruction for the individual student teachers must understand the enormous variety of reading methods and materials that exist and make independent decisions based on their students particular needs Research indicates that educators are often influenced by reading instruction fads that quickly fade making it more challenging to develop a repertoire of teaching strategies in which a teacher may have confidence This book examines a variety of reading methods used in American schools from the 19th to the 21st century and the literature promoting or critiquing them to help teachers become informed decision makers and better meet the needs of students Gaining Word Power Dorothy Rubin,2005-05 Gaining Word Powerhelps college students build and retain better vocabularies and become more effective strategic readers Based on more than thirty years of the author s teaching experience this comprehensive vocabulary book generates a basic college level vocabulary quickly effectively and pleasurably It incorporates a number of proven vocabulary building approaches that are grounded in sound learning theory In each self contained lesson words are presented on graduated levels of difficulty followed by challenging exercises and writing activities and reinforced by immediate access to solutions This approach enables students to progress at their own pace and evaluate their progress Although this text has a distinct pedagogical structure a variety of practices crossword puzzles writing exercises analogy activities and numerous cartoons throughout challenge students to learn using a variety of strategies while continuously emphasizing the reading writing connection
