Winds Of Imagination:

Winds of Imagination Petie W. Baldwin, R. Brian Regehr, 1976-01-01 Body, Subject, and Power in China Angela Zito, Tani E. Barlow, 1994-05-16 For the first time this volume brings to the study of China the theoretical concerns and methods of contemporary critical cultural studies Written by historians art historians anthropologists and literary critics who came of age after the People s Republic resumed scholarly ties with the United States these essays yield valuable new insights not only for China studies but also by extension for non Asian cultural criticism Contributors investigate problems of bodiliness engendered subjectivities and discourses of power through a variety of sources that include written texts paintings buildings interviews and observations Taken together the essays show that bodies in China have been classified represented discussed ritualized gendered and eroticized in ways as rich and multiple as those described in critical histories of the West Silk robes rocks winds gestures of bowing yin yang hierarchies and cross dressing have helped create experiences of the body specific to Chinese historical life By pointing to multiple examples of reimagining subjectivity and renegotiating power the essays encourage scholars to avoid making broad generalizations about China and to rethink traditional notions of power subject and bodiliness in light of actual Chinese practices Body Subject and Power in China is at once an example of the changing face of China studies and a work of importance to the entire discipline of cultural studies New Interpretations of American Literature Richard Fleming, Michael Payne, 1988 Each essay in this collection focuses on an individual classical American author Thoreau Hawthorne Melville Moore and Stevens and the author s primary works Traditional interpretations are reassessed based on close study of source texts and criticism Ride the Wind Laughing Kit Cain, 2006-05-15 Ride The Wind Laughing is an illustrated autobiographical story describing the mystical events and experiences which contributed in major ways to my building a 51 foot sailboat in the back yard of my mother s home in rural Nova Scotia an event which began with no money in an effort to test the Laws of Manifestation and prove to myself the efficacy and practical value of my years of spiritual training Over a period of four and a half years the boat named Wind Rider went from an imagined image to a pile of lumber and finally to a very unusual vessel to both live aboard and sail the oceans of the world I don t however recommend the effort as a way to test the Laws Of Manifestation It was more like a ladder to a fool s paradise when viewed from below but when viewed from above the journey itself was the reward What any gargantuan effort of creativity does for the mind heart and body It does far more for the soul Gathering the Winds Eleanor Wilner, 1975-01-01 Wind and Whirlwind: Utopian and Dystopian Themes in Literature and Philosophy Ágnes Heller, Riccardo Mazzeo, 2019-09-16 In Wind and Whirlwind the great philosopher Ágnes Heller and social scientist Riccardo Mazzeo explain the pros and cons of utopias and dystopias as they are described in literary works and their relevance to understand the world we live in and the hidden consequences of apparently appealing life trajectories At the Wind's Will Louise Chandler Moulton, 1900 Architect, 1908 Imagination's Music Christy MacKaye Barnes, 2004 This book begins with a selection of Christy s poems published when she was twenty one in Out of Chrysalis and Wind in the Grass In the first poem Up she celebrates the sprouting forces of organic growth that she senses in the grasses and trees and feels so strongly within herself To Run on Hills conveys the same exuberant almost mythical oneness with nature The second and third sections of the book are comprised of hitherto unpublished poems written in midlife and old age As her youthful forces dwindled Christy turned increasingly toward an inner source that grew stronger and more definite in her old age Throughout her last years Christy's poetry often focused on the immediate impressions of her surroundings which she portrayed with the utmost simplicity wonder and devotion She explores the deep correspondence between the world within and the outer world of nature Gone is the youthful vitality of her early poems replaced by a mood of peace permeated by the inner sun of her experience As in all of her poems we feel the imagination where inner and outer merge in a creative act revealing a deeper dimension of reality

Towards a History of Consciousness Vwadek P. Marciniak,2006 Towards a History of Consciousness Space Time and Death offers a cogent and compelling discussion of the neglected topic of the history of consciousness An analysis of our postmodern ontology reveals deep but neglected roots What are those roots and how did they grow Is there a self without consciousness What is the relation of the self to the individual Does the recognition of death contribute to the growth of consciousness As a survey of western history this work pushes the boundaries of the understanding of consciousness in intriguing and sometimes provocative directions This integrative study is intended for the serious curious student and thinker
