Wings Of Justice:

The Sword of Justice Sheppard Stevens,1899 Dante's Fearful Art of Justice Anthony K. Cassell,1984-12-15 Dante s Fearful Art of Justice deals primarily with the symbolic significance of the state of souls after death in various episodes of the Inferno the first canticle of Dante s Divina Commedia The fruitlessness of the Auerbach Singleton approach to the poem is demonstrated by Professor Cassell s investigations which are based on the belief that Dante used both the theological system of fourfold allegory and the preconfiguration fulfilment pattern of history found in the Old and New Testaments The author first deals with the history of contrapassum just retribution as it appeared in philosophy and theology and describes Dante s use of historical and artistic figuration both classical and Christian It is central to Cassell s aim to show how Dante believed that his portrayal of the damned revealed the justice of God Critics have believed that the relation of sin to the suffering of the shades in Hell was tenuous or even arbitrary in many cases Cassell shows through a close examination of Dante s assimilation of the Classics and their medieval interpretations or patristics and of traditional iconography that there is an intimate metaphorical and artistic aptness in the poet s representation Cassell relies at some points on art history and thirty four illustrations of frescoes statuary and illuminations from paleo Christian times to the fourteenth century are therefore included This volume will be of particular interest to medieval specialists historians of the Renaissance and Reformation periods and those concerned with European literature Pioneers of Justice Walter William Liggett,1930 Cry of Justice Jason Pratt,2007-06 Monsters wander the world of Mikon Caught in the aftermath of a vicious international war thousands of refugees have fled the Coastal States bringing their dangers with them into the wilderness near the untamed Middlelands Poems of Justice ,1929 The Courts of Justice Bench and Bar of Washington County, Pennsylvania Boyd Crumrine,1902 The Award of Justice Anna Maynard Barbour,1901 The Temple of Justice and Other Poems George W.
