Winning Over Racism:

Discourses of Antiracism in France Catherine Lloyd, 2018-10-26 First published in 1998 this book is an examination of antiracist discourses and practices in France It sets out to trace the development of post war French antiracism through the life of antiracist organizations setting this within a broader historical political and social context It breaks new ground in that it analyses antiracism as a body of ideas in its own right rather than as a mirror image of racism The author uses previously unpublished archival material from French organizations combined with observations from current events She argues that antiracist discourses and practices are structured around four main themes discrimination representation solidarity and hegemony While perceptions of discrimination have evolved into complex understandings of social exclusion the representational functions of antiracist groups were challenged by immigrant workers movements themselves Solidarity remained central to antiracist practices in different political contexts Underpinning these features lies a hegemonic social project through which antiracists have sought to promote a common sense through political and educational campaigns The author concludes that French antiracism although constantly changing and refocusing is now a pluralist transversal hegemonic movement and an important component of civil society

Decolonial Options in Higher Education Sinfree Makoni, Chanel van der Merwe, 2025-06-03 In order for decolonization to avoid becoming yet another orthodoxy this book argues that it is necessary to recognize the neoliberal ideologies and imperatives that drive so much work in universities in both the Global Norths and Global Souths and to understand the enmeshment both historical and ongoing of universities in colonial practices The chapters interrogate both these issues and the terms in which they are usually critiqued in order to identify the cracks and fissures within institutions that may enable decolonization to be leveraged as a praxis and a means of radical change The chapters explore a range of issues across Higher Education including reparations allyship soft power academic publishing and the politics of race within the university together they represent an argument for the necessity of continually rethinking and re making the theories methods and assumptions of decolonization

Outclassed Joan C. Williams, 2025-05-20 An eye opening urgent call to mend the broken relationship between college and non college grads of all races that is driving politics to the far right in the US Is there a single change that could simultaneously protect democracy spur progress on climate change enact sane gun policies and improve our response to the next pandemic Yes changing the class dynamics driving American politics The far right manipulates class anger to undercut progressive goals and liberals often inadvertently play into their hands In Outclassed Joan C Williams explains how to reverse that process by bridging the diploma divide while maintaining core progressive values She offers college educated Americans insights into how their values reflect their lives and their lives reflect their privilege With illuminating stories from the Portuguese admiral who led that country's COVID response to the lawyer who led the ACLU's gay marriage response and more Williams demonstrates how working class values reflect working class lives Then she explains how the far right connects culturally with the working class deftly manipulating racism and masculine anxieties to deflect attention from the ways far right policies produce the economic conditions disadvantaging the working class Whether you are a concerned citizen committed to saving democracy or a politician or social justice warrior in need of messaging advice Outclassed offers concrete guidance on how liberals can forge a multi racial cross class coalition capable of delivering on progressive goals

Merge Left Ian Haney López, 2019-10-01 From the acclaimed author of Dog Whistle Politics an essential road map to neutralizing the role of racism as a divide and conquer political weapon and to building a broad multiracial progressive future Ian Haney López has broken the code on the racial politics of the last fifty years Bill Moyers In 2014 Ian Haney López in Dog Whistle Politics named and explained the coded racial appeals exploited by right wing politicians over the last half century and thereby anticipated the 2016 presidential election Now the country is heading into what will surely be one of the most consequential elections ever with the Right gearing up to exploit racial fear mongering to divide and distract and the Left splintered over the next step forward Some want to focus on racial justice head on others insist that a race silent focus on class avoids alienating white voters Can either approach race forward or colorblind build the progressive supermajorities necessary to break political gridlock and fundamentally change the country's direction For the past two years Haney López has been collaborating with a research team of union activists racial justice leaders communications specialists and pollsters Based on conversations interviews and surveys with thousands of people all over the country the team found a way forward By merging the fights for racial justice and for shared economic prosperity they were able to build greater enthusiasm for both goals and for the cross racial solidarity needed to win elections What does this mean It means that neutralizing the Right's political strategy of racial division is possible today And that's the key to everything progressives want to achieve A work of deep research nuanced argument and urgent insight Merge Left Fusing Race and Class Winning Elections and Saving America is an indispensable tool for the upcoming political season and in the larger fight to build racial justice and shared economic prosperity for all of us Gentlemen Riders John Maunsell

Richardson, Finch Mason, 1909 Legislating Equality Terri E. Givens, Rhonda Evans Case, 2014-04-17 The development of antidiscrimination policy in Europe closely mirrored European Union deepening in the 1990s but its roots lie in developments during the 1980s Actors in the European Parliament saw a political opening for action with the rise of the radical right in places like France and Germany In the 1980s and early 1990s racist acts of violence and the stunning success of radical right political parties across Europe catapulted the issues of immigration xenophobia fascism and racism to the forefront The European Parliament was only beginning to take on a more important role in the supranational structures that were under construction during the 1980s but it would play a key role in the development of an anti racism agenda and what would ultimately become racial antidiscrimination policy for the European Union Legislating Equality begins by examining the evolving discourses around racism in Europe from the mid 1980s through the late 1990s The authors then link these discourses and country level starting points to the political and social factors which influenced the development of antidiscrimination policy Examining the role of the European Parliament Commission and key societal actors in the passage of the Racial Equality Directive in 2000 It then goes on to examine the transposition of the EU directives into national law and the implementation of antidiscrimination policy Legislating Equality argues that these processes were impacted by the slow down in European integration in the early 2000s as well as political pressure from more conservative governments than had initially passed the legislation at the EU level Philippine Teacher ,1929 The Citizen Almanac ,1894 Forest and Stream ,1886 Town & Country ,1927 Flight ,1923 Chicago Daily News Almanac and Political Register ,1919 Overland Monthly ,1906 Auto Motor Journal Stanley Spooner,1913 Motor World Wholesale ,1908 The Horseless Age ,1903
