Briongos, 2008-11-01 In 1968 with Franco still in power 21 year old Ana M Briongos left her native city of Barcelona for the first time and went to Afghanistan Staying first in Kandahar then in Kabul it was not long before she fell in love with this fascinating country Between 1968 and 1977 she would return there many times In her quest for self discovery she encountered a cast of characters worthy of a novel from street vendors in the bazaar to members of the country s ruling class and relatives of the Afghan royal family Ana M Briongos was also very privileged to be given a rare and intriguing glimpse behind the veil into the hidden world of Afghan women Winter in Kandahar offers a personal recollection of an Afghanistan that no longer exists that of the final years of a forty year old monarchy on the verge of collapse The book provides an insight into Afghanistan s complex system of clans and tribes as well as a compelling account of the country s troubled history The friendships Ana Briongos cemented during those years are still very much alive this book represents a tribute to the survival of friendship through adversity against a backdrop of adventure and intrigue Historic Cities of the Islamic World Clifford Edmund Bosworth, 2007-01-01 This book contains articles on historic cities of the Islamic world ranging from West Africa to Malaysia which over the centuries have been centres of culture and learning and of economic and commercial life and which have contributed much to the consolidation of Islam as a faith and as a social and political institution The articles have been taken from the second edition of the Encyclopaedia of Islam completed in 2004 but in many cases expanded and rewritten All have been updated to include fresh historical information with note of contemporary social developments and population statistics The book thus delineates the urban background of Islam as it has evolved up to the present day highlighting the role of such great cities as Cairo Istanbul Baghdad and Delhi in Islamic history and also brings them together in a rich panorama illustrating one of mankind s greatest achievements the living organism of the city The Ibis ,1889 A Glossary of the Tribes and Castes of the Punjab and North-West Frontier Province Horace Arthur Rose, 1914 A Glossary of the Tribes & Castes of the Punjab & North-west Frontier Province ,1914 Notes on Nomad Tribes of Eastern Afghanistan J.
