

A WINTER SHORT STORY

Read and colour

It's cold and snowy today.

The children are playing in the snow.

Tom and Ann are making a snowman.

Tom is wearing a big green jacket, a red hat and yellow boots.

Ann is wearing a brown coat, a pink hat and purple boots.

The snowman's hat is black and his scarf is orange.

Focus On: 100 Most Popular American Rock Guitarists Wikipedia contributors, Literary Translation Lifecycles Jack McMartin, Paola Gentile, Elisa Nelissen, 2026-02-26 This collection examines how translated books come into being and circulate across languages cultures and book markets Using Dutch as a case study of a source language at the margins of the world literary system the volume sets out an innovative conceptual framework for understanding the making of translated literature covering discovery selection acquisition translation production marketing and reception It brings together fifteen accounts of recent literary works translated from Dutch spanning five genres and fourteen different target languages This comparative approach keeping the focus on the same source language at the periphery of the world literary system across examples allows for a deeper look into the numerous agents involved in the lifecycle of a translated book including translators editors agents rights managers marketing staff and government representatives Chapters explore the connections between production side decisions and how translated books were ultimately received in the market from success stories and breakthroughs to works that faced delays setbacks or limited uptake thereby illustrating a variety of trajectories within the global translation system Taken together the collection provides a comprehensive picture of the circulation of Dutch literature in translation and contributes to broader discussions on the translation of less widely studied languages This book will appeal to scholars in translation studies and world literature particularly those interested in literary translation the sociology of translation and translation publishing

Narrative and Metaphor in Education Michael Hanne, Anna A. Kaal, 2018-12-07 Human beings rely equally on narrative or storytelling and metaphor or analogy for making sense of the world Narrative and Metaphor in Education integrates the two perspectives of narrative and metaphor in educational theory and practice at every level from pre school to lifelong civic education Bringing together outstanding educational researchers the book interweaves for the first time the rich strand of current research about how narrative may be used productively in education with more fragmentary research on the role of metaphor in education and invites readers to look both ways The book consists of research by 40 academics from many countries and disciplines describing and analysing the intricate connections between narrative and metaphor as they manifest themselves in many fields of education including concepts of education teacher identity and reflective practice teaching across cultures teaching science and history using digital and visual media in teaching fostering reconciliation in a postcolonial context special needs education civic and social education and educational policy making It is unique in combining study of the narrative perspective and the metaphor perspective and in exploring such a comprehensive range of topics in education Narrative and Metaphor in Education will be of great interest to academics and researchers in the fields of education and educational policy as well as teacher educators practising and future teachers It will also appeal to psychologists sociologists applied linguists and communications specialists

Exploited, Empowered, Ephemeral Denise Burkhard, 2023-07-10 Childhood in neo Victorian fiction for both child and adult readers is an extremely multifaceted and fascinating field This book argues that neo Victorian fiction projects multiple competing visions of childhood and suggests that they can be analysed by means of a typology the childhood scale which provides different categories along the lines of power relations and literary possible worlds theory The usefulness of both is exemplified by detailed discussions of Philippa Pearce s Tom s Midnight Garden 1958 Eva Ibbotson s Journey to the River Sea 2001 Sarah Waters Fingersmith 2002 and Dianne Setterfield s The Thirteenth Tale 2006
