Seen and Heard Nichola D. Gutgold, 2008-01-01. This book chronicles the careers, communication styles, and lives of twelve prominent women in television broadcasting and discusses the obstacles and opportunities in the television broadcasting field as they relate to women. The importance of the role of television anchor seems insignificant when compared to the career milestones of women in more academic fields, yet the role of messenger—the person who delivers news—is one of the most visible and prestigious in America.
