Reimagining Adult Education as World Building Aliko Nicolaidis,Ahream Lim,Neal Herr,Trisha Barefield,2024-03-18
Reimagining Adult Education as World Building offers a new way of thinking about adult education by re envisaging how adult education works It explores how the process of world building or the invention of a new world or a set of concepts can be translated into actual and feasible action when turning towards complex real life problems Cultivating contexts where adult educators can become change agents who recognize that the individual and community are intricately entangled demands that educators grow new capacities make new tools develop thicker networks and cultivate intentional links amongst each other to foster ecologies of transformation This book shows how educators can create an ecology or environment for transformative thinking where students can learn to collaborate and use world building tools to create new responses to current issues It begins by explaining the philosophical underpinnings of world building and the tools that translate pragmatic imagination into scaffolds for individual and collective capacity building It also illustrates how the worldbuilding protocol makes a difference in adult learning and how this pedagogical tool introduces the ecological approach to adult education Each chapter explores a practical case study showing how learners have applied worldbuilding tools to complex challenges Showing how to apply the world building protocol in a classroom setting this edited collection will be valuable to Adult Education scholars researchers practitioners and learning facilitators

Philosophy as World Literature Jeffrey R. Feminism as World Literature Robin Truth Goodman,2022-11-03 The conventional lineage of World Literature starts with Goethe and moves through Marx Said Moretti and Damrosch among others What if there is another way to trace the lineage starting with Simone de Beauvoir and moving through Hannah Arendt Assia Djebar Octavia Butler Donna Haraway Karen Barad and Gayatri Spivak What ideas and issues get left out of the current foundations that have institutionalized World Literature and what can be added challenged or changed with this tweaking of the referential terminology Feminism as World Literature redefines the thematic and theoretical contents of World Literature in feminist terms as well as rethinking feminist terms analyses frameworks and concepts in a World Literature context Other ideas built into World Literature and its criticism are viewed here by feminist framings including the environment technology immigration translation work race governance image sound religion affect violence media future and history The authors recognize genres strategies and themes of World Literature that demonstrate feminism as integral to the world making gestures of literary form and production In other words this volume looks to readings and modes of reading that expose how the historical worldliness of texts allows for feminist interventions that might not sit clearly or comfortably on the surfaces

Polish Literature as World Literature Piotr Florczyk, K. A. Wisniewski, 2022-12-15 This carefully curated collection consists of 16 chapters by leading Polish and world literature scholars from the United States Canada Italy and of course Poland An historical approach gives readers a panoramic view of Polish authors and their explicit or implicit contributions to world literature Indeed the volume shows how Polish authors from Jan Kochanowski in the 16th century to the 2018 Nobel laureate Olga Tokarczuk have engaged with their foreign counterparts and other traditions active participants in the global literary network and the conversations of their day The volume features views of Polish literature and culture within theories of world literature and literary systems with a particular attention paid to the resurgence of the idea of the physical book as a cultural artifact This perspective is especially important since so much of today s global literary output stems from Anglophone perceptions of what constitutes literary quality and tastes The collection also sheds light on specific issues pertaining to Poland such as the idea of Polishness and global phenomena including social and economic advancement as well as ecological degradation Some of the authors discussed like the Romantic poet Adam Mickiewicz or the 1980 Nobel laureate Czeslaw Milosz were renowned far beyond the borders of their country while others like the contemporary travel writer and novelist Andrzej Stasiuk embrace regionalism seeing as they do in their immediate surroundings a synecdoche of the world at large Nevertheless the picture of Polish literature and Polish authors that emerges from these articles is that of a diverse cosmopolitan cohort engaged in a mutually rewarding relationship with what the late French critic Pascale Casanova has called the world republic of letters
