The Deep End of Hope in the Wake of Hurricane Helene Emma M. Churchman, 2025-02-01 Imagine being cut off from the world perched atop a mountain turned into a deadly flood zone by Hurricane Helene's fury For Emma Churchman and her husband Jeff this nightmare became reality in September 2024 For three harrowing days their loved ones had no idea if they were alive But surviving was just the beginning When they finally fought their way down three miles of treacherous terrain they found their small mountain community of Gerton NC transformed Without power phones or internet their neighborhood teetered between chaos and unity As lawlessness emerged and desperation mounted Emma made a choice that would change everything to transform her fear into a fierce kind of love With raw honesty and unexpected humor Emma chronicles her role as a trauma chaplain in a community forced to build itself anew Her powerful mantra becomes a lifeline not just for her but for an entire community learning to trust again I am safe I am warm I am fed I am loved Part survival story part love letter to human resilience this unforgettable memoir shows us what's possible when crisis strips away our differences and reveals our shared humanity In a world increasingly divided Emma's story reminds us that our greatest strength lies not in our independence but in our connections to each other With over twenty five years of experience as a spiritual and business leader Emma M Churchman MDiv has guided thousands through the labyrinth of trauma to reclaim hope and strength Her powerful work as a trauma chaplain and mentor is rooted in her own journey of overcoming childhood adversity
