The Mason Chronicles D. S. Rogers,2002-01-01      The Mason Chronicles Russell Watson,2019-06-07 How could life get any worse Mason Forsythe rails against the world that he blames for his own misfortunes His whole existence is one very black comedy a series of episodes in the life of a homeless derelict who has the Midas touch but in reverse Everything he tries turns into a horrible mess usually leaving him taking a ride to Accident and Emergency The only actual friends he has help to enable his misfortunes whenever they can They upload video recordings of his catastrophes onto You Tube Mason is as clueless as he is unlucky careening from one disaster to the next The Mason Chronicles is a scathing satire on modern life It pokes fun at just about everything through the eyes of a homeless short house with what some might describe as arrested development others would probably call it catastrophic stupidity It is probably the most politically incorrect thing you will read for a while At some times it is graphic and violent while at others it serves up cruel slapstick comedy and ridiculous situations that defy logic It is very much in the tradition of crude satirical fiction that dates back to Rabelais and his giant characters poking caustic fun at the establishment      The Mason Chronicles Revisited Russell Watson,2024-10-29 Here we go again Mason Forsythe returns for one final series of adventures in bad taste and political incorrectness Told in a series of flashbacks as he lies dying in a dingy alleyway gutter Young Mason chronicles the mishaps and misfires that shape Mason into the absolute waste of life he is destined to become This is the fourth and final book in the Mason Chronicles series The story begins in 1977 the year baby Mason is dumped on his father s doorstep He endures years of abuse and mistreatment at the hands of his family and teachers abuse that helps shape his anarchic world view and teaches him what is important in life It ends in 2022 when Mason slowly begins his recovery from a savage beating and resumes his Quixotic march into oblivion This is a comedy novel but many of the themes are quite graphic and brutal Not recommended for minors or anybody who is easily offended by toilet humour political incorrectness or bad language      Touch- The Mason Chronicles Muhammad Tayyab,2021-08-22 No one knew what had happened to the world Before Or why Or how Only that what had been Before was now gone and all that was left was After Join Mason for a walk through a richly dark world No one knew what had happened to the world Before Or why Or how Only that what had been Before was now gone and all that was left was After Of course none of that was Mason s concern at this moment His concern was that of making contact The world was ruined long ago How that happened or why it did is unknown to those who remain Life has moved on and the apocalypse that created the world of After has forever altered the world Mutations have occurred in all forms of life creating a new biosphere Even the genealogy of man is now as unclear as the altered and burned atmosphere itself Some men remain unchanged and as normal as the ancients from Before while some have developed strange and wondrous abilities Society has been reduced to small entities trying to carve out an existence in whatever way they can Someone has decided that the destruction of the world has gone far enough Unfortunately they have chosen a Paladin and he is not the Paladin sort Mason never asked for the tasks that have been bestowed upon him to complete Still he finds himself gathering others to his side Join Mason on a dark adventure through a harsh world Mason Chronicles 3 - Scraping the Barrel Russell Watson,2022-08-14 Here we go again In the third and final part of the Mason Chronicles trilogy Mason really scrapes the barrel while finding even more ridiculous and profoundly unsound things to fill his days The world is changing around him but Mason is too abysmally stupid to change and too stubborn to even try Set in the year prior to the beginning of the pandemic Mason plumbs new depths of bad taste and political incorrectness If you have an open mind and enjoy slapstick satire you may even enjoy this book WARNING This is not suitable for minors Contains swearing and situations that some may find offensive The Mason Chronicles 2

Monetising Mason Russell Watson,2020-09-08 Monetising Mason takes place in 2019 in the months before the Covid 19 pandemic It continues the misadventures of a hopelessly stupid homeless dwarf Mason Forsythe and the people around him His friends and foes alike mercilessly exploit him for laughs and increasingly start to market Mason as a most improbable reality star Mason naturally enough remains completely oblivious to all this He cares only about two things collecting cash and then being able to feed his endless craving for junk food and high tar cigarettes Once his estranged family discovers Mason has become famous even they want in on the wealth creation The Mason Chronicles 2 is a politically incorrect some might say tasteless commentary on the world and how the system cruelly takes advantage of even the most talentless and utterly stupid of individuals and sets them up for their fifteen minutes of fame This novel might be described as slapstick satire or black comedy It is most certainly not suitable for children or anyone who is easily offended However it is intended purely as a work of entertainment and not meant to be taken seriously The Freemason's Chronicle ,1875 The
