Jessie Belle Rittenhouse

We Two Together:

We Two Together Denise Robins, 2014-04-24 Juliet was nearly eighteen Almost a woman She was very rich Her mother and half sister were slim and attractive but Juliet was rather plump Her mother's attempts to find her a husband had failed and Juliet was miserable Juliet lived in her own private world of music art and dreams a world she was unable to share with anyone Then one night at a concert she caught the intense probing gaze of the dark eyed young stranger seated next to her No man had ever looked at her like that The woman inside Juliet stirred for the first time She smiled back And so it began Romero the young Italian shared her love of music But she did not know then the shocking and violent drama that lay in wait for her Or that from the moment of their first embrace she had moved into a world from which there was no return *We Two Together.
