Understanding The Holocaust An Introduction:

Understanding the Holocaust Dan Cohn-Sherbok, 2001-01-01 What is the Holocaust Were Hitler and his executioners sadistic psychopaths Were ordinary Germans morally culpable for murdering millions of innocent victims This volume seeks to explore these and other ethical cultural and religious questions within a historical context Beginning with the origin and growth of anti-Semitism the book continues with a detailed account of the various stages of Nazi onslaught and concludes with a consideration of the legacy of the Holocaust in the modern world Designed as a work for students in colleges and universities as well as the general reader the volume contains 26 chapters which deal with a particular period This is followed by discussion of the implication of the events of the Holocaust Unlike other books on the subject this study contains both a history of the Holocaust and extensive reflections about social religious and moral issues raised by the emergence of the Third Reich and its impact on subsequent history Contains maps and illustrations related to the growth and development of Nazism and a lengthy bibliography for further study

An Introductory Reader to the Writings of Jim Cummins Jim Cummins, Colin Baker, Nancy H. Hornberger, 2001 The contribution of Jim Cummins to bilingualism and bilingual education has been substantial and profound This reader provides a comprehensive compilation of his most important and influential texts The book also provides a detailed biographical introduction and a commentary on the growth of ideas over three decades

The Politics of Decolonial Investigations Walter D. Mignolo, 2021-07-09 In The Politics of Decolonial Investigations Walter D Mignolo provides a sweeping examination of how coloniality has operated around the world in its myriad forms from the sixteenth century to the twenty first Decolonial border thinking allows Mignolo to outline how the combination of the self fashioned narratives of Western civilization and the hegemony of Eurocentric thought served to eradicate all knowledges in non European languages and praxes of living and being Mignolo also traces the geopolitical origins of racialized and gendered classifications modernity globalization and cosmopolitanism placing them all within the framework of coloniality Drawing on the work of theorists and decolonial practitioners from the Global South and the Global East Mignolo shows how coloniality has provoked the emergence of decolonial politics initiated by delinking from all forms of Western knowledge and subjectivities The urgent task Mignolo stresses is the epistemic reconstitution of categories of thought and praxes of living destituted in the very process of building Western civilization and the idea of modernity The overcoming of the long lasting hegemony of the West and its distorted legacies is already underway in all areas of human existence Mignolo underscores the relevance of the politics of decolonial investigations in and outside the academy to liberate ourselves from canonized knowledge ways of knowing and praxes of living
