New Directions in Art, Fashion, and Wine Annamma Joy,2023-05-30 Sustainability digitalization and artification have become the cornerstones of a successful business model in a world rocked by the effects of a pandemic and a climate crisis Organizational strategies in the art fashion and wine industries have to be redesigned to reflect these changes The circular model discussed in this work provides guidance and a vision for systematically moving towards social and environmental sustainability from both a production and consumption perspective

Digitalization provides a viable alternative to brick and mortar and helps create a hybrid presence for brands in both real and virtual worlds. Artification is the process of elevating an object into a work of art and closely mirrors the aestheticization of society in a postmodern world. While selling online is a given, creating an auratic atmosphere to envelop and provide an unforgettable experience requires greater levels of creativity. Each chapter focuses on aspects of consumer culture theory with its emphasis on identity, lifestyle, and symbolic meaning, with the introductory chapter paying more attention to the application of practice theory to the study of sustainability, artification, and digitalization. The complementarity between the practice turn and the cultural turn promises new insights.

The Farmer & Stock-breeder, 1933 Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 2007 100% Unofficial Roblox Mega Hits 3 100% Unofficial, 2023-04-27 OVER 15 MORE OF ROBLOX'S BEST GAMES INSIDE FOR YOU TO EXPLORE Sustainability in Art, Fashion and Wine Annamma Joy, 2024-03-18. The art, fashion, and wine industries are currently at various stages in their efforts to embrace and transition towards sustainability. While sustainability commitments are a necessary condition for progress, they are not sufficient. Instead, there is a need for sweeping transformative change that includes giving serious consideration to indigenous worldviews without recolonizing them. Sustainability in Art, Fashion, and Wine includes findings from recent research and contributes to a new understanding of familiar concepts such as sustainability, decolonization, and corporate responsibility in the art, fashion, and wine industries by adopting critical lenses and incorporating them with innovative perspectives on circular business models and digitalization. It endeavors to present remedies for effectively combating climate change and promoting social good. While discussing specific issues such as sub-contracted labor, safe working conditions, living wages, environmental degradation, mismanaged waste, and more, the book argues that recognizing the significant role western colonization has played and continues to play in the developing world in our current conception of capitalism is itself unsustainable. To understand the true meaning of sustainability, to fully recognize the looming deadlines we face in combating the climate crisis, and instituting sustainability as a new normal, the acceptance of a new conception of capitalism, one antithetical to colonization and exploitation, is required. Contributors to this book address these issues by applying a critical studies approach to their respective chapters, allowing the book to set out what real sustainability could and should look like in the art, fashion, and wine industries.
