Daring to Dance with God Jeff Walling, 1996 Jeff Walling has spent the last twenty years preaching and teaching about Jesus. His passionate style and dramatic delivery have made him a sought after speaker lecturing to tens of thousands annually at Christian universities, evangelism seminars and conferences worldwide. John Main: Awake to the Spirit that Embraces All Carlos Miramontes Seijas, 2024-01-14 Born to an Irish immigrant family in England, soldier in the Second World War, diplomat in Malaysia, disciple of the Hindu monk Swami Satyananda, university professor of Law, then Benedictine monk, founder of a new priory in Montreal, teacher of meditation, a profound and still unknown theologian, a spiritual master and perhaps the inspirer of new spiritual movements, John Main was all of these things. He saw himself in a way as a disciple of Abhishiktananda and his tremendously practical character led him to search for the actual path that could lead to the point of convergence of the Christian but of Abrahamic ones broadly speaking and Dharmic religions, theologically, historically and spiritually in a very practical way. He died prematurely leaving us only talks, lectures and loose writings, some edited and some not, but certainly not a well articulated synthetic vision. We believe however that he had such a vision in mind and so we have tried to study it in order to present it here as well as to extend his vision with our own research and reflections which are intended to be along the same lines as his and to develop what we believe to be his essential vision.

Reading Dance Judith Mackrell, 1997 Dance critic Judith Mackrell explores the many different dance forms in the Western repertoire and looks at the work of famous choreographers from Pepita to Balanchine including their historical context and the origins of steps.

Quest, 1969

ReMembering the Body Gabriele Brandstetter, Hortensia Völckers, 2000 This text and picture book designed by Bruce Mau reflects the myriad issues surrounding representations and concepts of the body, focusing on the body in movement. ReMembering the Body is dedicated to dance, the experimental territory, par excellence of the moving body and explores a variety of topics such as choreography in the cinema, choreography and spatial concepts, the aesthetics of violence and subversion in both the sciences and the arts, and notions of the body as a machine and as an animalistic organism. Texts by cultural critics such as Friedrich Kittler and Mau's picture essay combine to present fragments of the pictorial dismemberment of the body as a vivid history of movement. Arrestingly and uniquely designed, ReMembering the Body is an ideal and thoroughly indexed reference work as well as an important cultural document.
