Teaching Craft Design And Technology 5 To 13:

Design And Technology In Primary School Classrooms Les Tickle,2002-01-04 Design and Technology in Primary School Classrooms presents a comprehensive account of the development and nature of design and technology in the primary classroom from the modest beginnings in the 1980s to detailed implementation within the National Curriculum It shows how the design problem solving process and the knowledge skills and understanding associated with design and technology can be developed by teachers who were previously unfamiliar with such activities Case studies demonstrate the teaching strategies employed and illustrate in detail how children respond to design and technology in complex ways The book combines original classroom research data with extensive illustrations resource information and summaries of what design and technology in the National Curriculum involves Teaching Craft, Design, and Technology, Five to Thirteen Peter H. M. Williams,1985-01-01 Engineering Education John Heywood,2006-01-24 A synthesis of nearly 2 000 articles to help make engineers better educators While a significant body of knowledge has evolved in the field of engineering education over the years much of the published information has been restricted to scholarly journals and has not found a broad audience This publication rectifies that situation by reviewing the findings of nearly 2 000 scholarly articles to help engineers become better educators devise more effective curricula and be more effective leaders and advocates in curriculum and research development The author s first objective is to provide an illustrative review of research and development in engineering education since 1960 His second objective is with the examples given to encourage the practice of classroom assessment and research and his third objective is to promote the idea of curriculum leadership The publication is divided into four main parts Part I demonstrates how the underpinnings of education history philosophy psychology sociology determine the aims and objectives of the curriculum and the curriculum s internal structure which integrates assessment content teaching and learning Part II focuses on the curriculum itself considering such key issues as content organization trends and change A chapter on interdisciplinary and integrated study and a chapter on project and problem based models of curriculum are included Part III examines problem solving creativity and design Part IV delves into teaching assessment and evaluation beginning with a chapter on the lecture cooperative learning and teamwork The book ends with a brief insightful forecast of the future of engineering education Because this is a practical tool and reference for engineers each chapter is self contained and may be read independently of the others Unlike other works in engineering education which are generally intended for educational researchers this publication is written not only for researchers in the field of engineering education but also for all engineers who teach All readers acquire a host of practical skills and knowledge in the fields of learning philosophy sociology and history as they specifically apply to the process of engineering curriculum improvement and evaluation Primary Education at a Hinge of History Colin Richards,2002-11-01 Primary education is currently at the centre of political attention Reform is constantly under consideration though the leading proponents of reform are often far removed from the classroom and the world of hard pressed demoralised primary teachers Colin Richards rectifies this by communicating the big picture of primary school culture He takes the world of the primary school since Plowden 1967 and traces perennial and emergent issues the issues that need to be understood in order to make a difference to the future of primary education Through constructive criticism of the national curriculum OFSTED ITT and teaching methodology the book will influence and improve the understanding of policy makers headteachers governors and teachers and students
