Teaching For Meaning In High Poverty Classrooms:

Teaching for Meaning in High-poverty Classrooms Michael Sturgis Knapp,1995 Observational Research in U.S. Classrooms Hersholt C. Waxman,Roland G. Tharp,R. Soleste Hilberg,2004-01-26 The present national reform agendas stress that rigorous content and high expectations be accessible to all students including students from groups whose achievement has traditionally lagged behind that of the majority culture students Improving the achievement in US schools important for both social and economic stability will require that instruction be responsive to our nation s increasingly diverse student population This book includes theoretical frameworks as well as substantive research findings and provides examples of recently developed classroom observation instruments based on research of effective teaching practices for culturally and linguistically diverse students Each chapter represents a new aspect of classroom observation research that will assist educators in their endeavors to improve US schools Accelerating The Learning Of All Students Christine Finnan,2018-03-05 Accelerated learning isn t that just for gifted students Accelerating the Learning of All Students Cultivating Culture Change in Schools Classrooms and Individuals answers that question while providing a vivid description of what happens at the school classroom and individual levels when people attempt to extend efforts to accelerate learning to all students The book begins with a definition of accelerated learning and provides a vivid description of efforts to accelerate the learning of three populations of students those identified as gifted those identified as low achieving and all students The book then examines the assumptions shaping school classroom and individual efforts to accelerate the learning of all students Written by a pair of educators one trained in gifted and talented education and the other in cultura anthropology this book provides teachers parents administrators and researchers with insight into why we continue to fail so many students and how we can cultivate change in schools classrooms and individuals so that all students receive the enriched challenging learning experiences typically reserved only for students identified as gifted Development of Achievement Motivation Allan Wigfield,Jacquelynne S. Eccles,2002-02 This book discusses research and theory on how motivation changes as children progress through school gender differences in motivation and motivational differences as an aspect of ethnicity Motivation is discussed within the context of school achievement as well as athletic and musical performance Key Features Coverage of the major theories and constructs in the motivation field Focus on developmental issues across the elementary and secondary school period Discussion of instructional and theoretical issues regarding motivation Consideration of gender and ethnic differences in motivation Resources in Education ,1996 Handbook of Research on Schools, Schooling and Human Development Judith L. Meece,Jacquelynne S. Eccles,2010-06-10 Children spend more time in school than in any social institution outside the home And schools probably exert more influence on children s development and life chances than any environment beyond the home and neighbourhood The purpose of this book is to document some important ways schools influence children s development and to describe various models and methods for studying schooling effects Key features include Comprehensive Coverage this is the first book to provide a comprehensive review of what is known about schools as a context for human development Topical coverage ranges from theoretical foundations to investigative methodologies and from classroom level influences such as teacher student relations to broader influences such as school organization and educational policies Cross Disciplinary this volume brings together the divergent perspectives methods and findings of scholars from a variety of disciplines among them educational psychology developmental psychology school psychology social psychology psychiatry sociology and educational policy Chapter Structure to ensure continuity chapter authors describe 1 how schooling influences are conceptualized 2 identify their theoretical and methodological approaches 3 discuss the strengths and weaknesses of existing research and 4 highlight implications for future research practice and policy Methodologies chapters included in the text feature various methodologies including longitudinal studies hierarchical linear models experimental and quasi experimental designs and mixed methods

Late to Class Jane A. Van Galen, George W. Noblit, 2012-02-01 b Winner of the 2007 Critics Choice Award presented by the American Educational Studies Association Late to Class presents theoretical empirical and pedagogical perspectives on social class and schooling in the United States Grounding their analyses at the intersections of class ethnicity gender geography and schooling the contributors examine the educational experiences of poor working class and middle class students against the backdrop of complicated class stratification in a shifting global economy Together they explore the salience of class in understanding the social economic and cultural landscapes within which young people in the United States come to understand the meaning of their formal education in times of changing opportunity

Journal for Research in Mathematics Education ,2011 From the Capital to the Classroom: Standards-based Reform in the States ,2001 Resources in Education ,1996 ERS Bulletin Educational Research Service (Arlington, Va.),1993 Three Arguments Against Whole Language & why They are Wrong Stephen D. Krashen,1999 Stephen Krashen one of the country s most respected authorities on language and literacy sets the record straight about today s reading wars offering an incisive analysis of the three major battle cries of whole language critics In a step by step dissection Krashen reiterates the three arguments then explores the most salient studies that support or refute them CLAIM Eye movement studies prove that readers assay text completely and therefore do not sample text to confirm predictions as maintained by whole language advocates In exploring the Eye Fixation Studies which attempted to disprove the Goodman Smith reading theory Krashen reveals that study participants had no alternative but to examine every fine detail of the print Further evidence is provided that supports the hypothesis that literacy development and comprehension are in fact closely related CLAIM Context interferes with reading This is only true says Krashen if the context e g pictures is too rich or overdetermining We also see how the results of studies supporting this claim were biased by the methodology used CLAIM Skill building approaches to reading have been shown to produce better results than whole language In fact asserts Krashen when whole language is correctly defined as providing comprehensible texts it is a consistent winner The author also skewers the national frenzy over early intervention and illustrates his point with a humorous scenario showing how prenatal phonemic awareness testing could be the logical outgrowth of an entirely skills based approach But beyond its point counterpoint format Three Arguments offers some real solutions chief of which is making sure that all children have access to interesting reading material so they can finally achieve the standards of literacy they deserve
