ABSTRACT

This study is an attempt to discuss the role of teachers in the knowledge society. The teaching learning process depends on the skill based activities. Knowledge society refers to the growth and welfare depends on innovation, economical renewal, technological development, openness to new ideas and applying them to solve complex problems. Information society means Producing processing and distributing information has a central role in society. New skills and Instruments for teachers cover a pedagogical survey of the changes induced by information and communication technology in today's society and education. In this paper, we discuss on the impact of teaching in the knowledge society.

KEYWORDS : Pedagogy, Information Society and Knowledge Society.

INTRODUCTION:

Teachers are knowledge workers. It critically analyzes facts, instruments, solutions, and strategies while suggesting interpretations and hypotheses to develop a new way of thinking about technology use in education. New Skills and Instruments for Teachers presents an historical description of education and technology use and explains the theoretical reasons for the description and analysis of the experiences. It also drafts future scenarios for teaching-learning phenomena and for education in a society where technology and knowledge management will play a more relevant role. This major commentary on the state of today's teaching profession in a knowledge driven world is theoretically original and strategically powerful a practical, inspiring, and challenging guide to rethinking the work of teaching.

DISCUSSION

In the school systems of modern societies, they have the primary responsibility to transmit formal knowledge to the next generation of workers and citizens. Teachers' work is among the most demanding and complicated of jobs focused on knowledge. To do their job well, teachers have to master the changing content and pedagogy of formal fields of specialized knowledge, develop empathic understanding with diverse groups of students and perform a multiplicity of other complex
