Teaching TV Sitcom James Baker, 2003-06-26 This comprehensive and accessible guide provides an introduction to teaching this topic with practical advice on classroom approaches and reference to key critical and theoretical writing Using examples from TV sitcoms in Britain and the US it explores sitcom conventions types of sitcom and issues such as representation of gender This book is part of a series particularly aimed at teachers new to media studies post 16 The series provides information and ideas for teachers involved with the teaching of AS and A level media studies 9OCR AQA and WJEC AS and A level film studies WJEC GNVQ AVCE Btech Scottish Highers Advanced Highers and Lifelong Learning courses Each title consists of a detailed teaching guide which provides essential information and guidance on how to cover each topic effectively with reference to assessment objectives Additional support materials including photocopiable worksheets for students are available online Television Sitcom and Cultural Crisis Holly Willson Holladay, Chandler L.

Classen, 2024-06-21 This volume demonstrates that television comedies are conduits through which we might resist normative ways of thinking about cultural crises By drawing on Gramscian notion of crisis and the understanding that crises are overlapping interconnected and mutually constitutive the essays in this collection demonstrate that situation comedies do more than make us laugh they also help us understand the complexities of our social world s moments of crisis Each chapter takes up the televisual representation of a modern cultural crisis in a contemporary sitcom and is grounded in the extensive body of literature that suggests that levity is a powerful mechanism to make sense of and cope with these difficult cultural experiences Divided into thematic sections that highlight crises of institutions and systems identity and representation and speculation and futurism this book will interest scholars of media and cultural studies political economy communication studies and humor studies Teacher TV Mary M. Dalton, Laura R. Linder, 2008 Teacher TV Sixty Years of Teachers on Television examines some of the most influential teacher characters presented on television from the earliest sitcoms to contemporary dramas and comedies Both topical and chronological the book follows a general course across decades and focuses on dominant themes and representations linking some of the most popular shows of the era to larger cultural themes Some of these include a view of how gender is socially constructed in popular culture and in society racial tensions throughout the decades educational privileges for elite students the mundane and the provocative in teacher depictions on television the view of gender and sexual orientation through a new lens life in inner city public schools the culture of testing and dropping out Every pre service and classroom teacher should read this book It is also a valuable text for upper division undergraduate and graduate level courses in media and education as well The Media Studies Book David Lusted, 2013-06-17 Introducing media criticism as well as teaching about the media in inter disciplinary and across the curriculum teaching this is the first critical reference book on the important curriculum initiatives taking place in media education The core of the book is a collection of essays on key concepts from media studies including language narrative

institution audience representation and the production process Written by teachers for teachers these essays organise ideas through classroom activities with a full listing of teaching materials resources agencies and publications in media education Contributors Tim Blanchard Gill Branston David Buckingham Jenny Grahame Karen Manzi and Allan Rowe Ben Moore Gillian Swanson Adrian Tilley and Tana Wollen Teaching TV Sitcom Cary Bazalgette,Jim Cook,Andy Medhurst,Arthur Horwood,Nicky North,Gillian Swanson,1989-01-01 Teaching TV News Eileen Lewis,2003-11 Teaching film and media studies Television Sitcom Brett Mills,2005-11-17 Despite its global reach longstanding popularity and immense profitability sitcom has been repeatedly neglected in theoretical work on television and media This book demonstrates that this lack needs to be sorely addressed by dragging analysis of sitcom up to date with a wealth of contemporary examples a range of new approaches to the genre and examination of the roles sitcom and comedy play within society The book takes as its starting point the variety of ways in which sitcom has traditionally been explored A chapter on genre examines the history and development of sitcom and the institutional structures which produce it There is also analysis of differences between sitcoms produced in a range of countries and what happens when a programme gets sold abroad and remade A chapter on representation explores the debates about the ways in which sitcom chooses who to make jokes about and why and whether this matters And a chapter on performance argues that this is a vital and underexplored aspect of sitcom s funniness and interrogates the ways in which comic actors make their performance funny With specific case studies on Will and Grace The Office and The Cosby Show as well as analysis of a broad range of contemporary and historical examples throughout this book will be of interest to students of sitcom and comedy as well as those of television and popular culture Teaching Scriptwriting, Screenplays and Storyboards for Film and TV Production Mark Readman,2003-05 This practical guide provides what you need to introduce scriptwriting to your students and establishes the basis for coursework for film or media studies It demonstrates how scriptwriting screenplays and storyboarding can be valuable both in the production context and as a way of engaging with key aspects of the media or film studies curriculum with accessible reference to key critical and theoretical writing This book is part of a series particularly aimed at teachers new to media studies post 16 The series provides information and ideas for teachers involved with the teaching of AS and A level media studies 9OCR AQA and WJEC AS and A level film studies WJEC GNVQ AVCE Btech Scottish Highers Advanced Highers and Lifelong Learning courses Each title consists of a detailed teaching guide which provides essential information and guidance on how to cover each topic effectively with reference to assessment objectives Additional support materials including photocopiable worksheets for students are available online Teaching Men and Film Matthew Hall,2005-11-02 Examining the changes in male roles and how these changes are explored in cinema this book includes frameworks for teaching the topic and accessible explanations of the cultural and critical background to changes in male roles It provides in depth film case studies that explore the changes and challenges to masculinity in the 21st century Teaching Auteur Study David Wharton,Jeremy

Grant,2005-06-29 Auteur study is a key element of Film Studies and has become increasingly important in Media Studies thanks to the popularity of cult auteurs such as Tarantino and Fincher However this theoretical aspect of film can seem obscure and difficult to communicate Teaching Auteur Study provides a coherent and clear approach to the topic Using examples throughout the guide outlines the main elements of Auteur theory provides an overview of how it developed summarising some of its main proponents and considers the influence it has had in the way we think about film It summarises the criteria for defining a filmmaker as an auteur and explores issues of creative control The guide also looks at the idea of film authorship from the point of view of the audience and how it influences audience expectations and marketing campaigns
