The Timeless Land:

The Timeless Land Eleanor Dark,1943 The timeless land Eleanor (O'Reilly) Dark, The Timeless Land Andrew Kilpatrick Thomson,1966 Historical material for The Timeless land Fictional part of the novel Eleanor Dark s technique and treatment of ideas ____ The Timeless Land Denys Val Baker,1973 THE TIMELESS LAND. BY ELEANOR DARK. Eleanor Dark,1954 Review of The timeless land Ashley Montagu,1942 The Timeless Land. [Poems.] Geoffrey Johnson (Writer of Verse.),1941 The Timeless Land Nina Riemer,Helen Findlay,1980 Time, Tide and History Brigid Rooney,Fiona Morrison,2024-06-01 Time Tide and History Eleanor Dark s Fiction is the first book length edited collection of scholarly essays to treat the full span of Eleanor Dark s fiction advancing a recent revival of critical and scholarly interest in Dark s writing This volume not only establishes a new view of Dark s fiction as a whole but also reflects on the ways in which her fiction speaks to our present moment in the context of a globally fraught post pandemic Anthropocene era Above all the revisiting of Dark s fiction is mandated by a desire to recognise the ways in which it anticipates vital debates in Australian literary and national culture today about settler colonialism and its legacies and with regard to the histories condition and status of Australia s First Nations people This volume interweaves varied topical themes from formal debates about modernism historical realism and melodrama to questions about modernity s time and space about gender and cultural difference and about the specifics of built and natural environments Time Tide and History intentionally loosens the conventions of literary scholarship by including other kinds of work alongside critical and scholarly readings a written dialogue between two contemporary historians about Dark s legacy and a biographical piece on the life and role of Eleanor Dark s husband Eric Payten Dark Bringing together the interwar fiction s feminist and modernist dimensions with the historical turn of The Timeless Land trilogy the essays in Time Tide and History collectively pursue ethical and political questions while teasing out the distinctive thematic formal and aesthetic features of Dark s fiction The Timeless Land Geoffrey JOHNSON (Poet.),1941 Middlebrow Modernism Melinda J. Cooper,2022-10-01 Eleanor Dark 1901 85 is one of Australia s most innovative 20th century writers Her extensive oeuvre includes ten novels published from the early 1930s to the late 1950s and represents a significant engagement with global modernity from a unique position within settler culture Yet Dark s contribution to 20th century literature has been undervalued in the fields of both Australian literary studies and world literature Although two biographies have been written about her life there has been no book length critical study of her writing published since 1976 Middlebrow Modernism counters this neglect by providing the first full length critical survey of Eleanor Dark s writing to be published in over four decades Focusing on the fiction that Dark produced during the interwar years and reading this in the context of her larger body of work this book positions Dark s writing as important to the study of Australian literature and global modernism Melinda Cooper argues that Dark s fiction exhibits a distinctive aesthetic of middlebrow modernism which blends attributes of literary modernism with popular fiction It seeks to mediate and reconcile apparent binaries modernism and mass culture liberal humanism and experimental aesthetics settler society and international modernity The term middlebrow modernism also captures the way Dark negotiated cosmopolitan commitments with more place based attachments to nation and local community within the mid 20th century Middlebrow Modernism posits that Dark s fiction and the broader phenomenon of Australian modernism offer essential case studies for larger debates operating within global modernist and world literature studies providing perspectives these fields might otherwise miss

Timeless Land, The : A Shadow In Eternit Payal Dhar, 2009 The Publishers Weekly, 1945-03

Backgazing: Reverse Time in Modernist Culture Paul Giles, 2019-02-14 This volume trace ways in which time is represented in reverse forms throughout modernist culture from the beginning of the twentieth century until the decade after World War II Though modernism is often associated with revolutionary or futurist directions this book argues instead that a retrograde dimension is embedded within it By juxtaposing the literature of Europe and North America with that of Australia and New Zealand it suggests how this antipodean context serves to defamiliarize and reconceptualize normative modernist understandings of temporal progression Backgazing thus moves beyond the treatment of a specific geographical periphery as another margin on the expanding field of New Modernist Studies Instead it offers a systematic investigation of the transformative effect of retrograde dimensions on our understanding of canonical modernist texts The title backgazing is taken from Australian poet Robert G FitzGerald s 1938 poem Essay on Memory and it epitomizes how the cultural history of modernism can be restructured according to a radically different discursive map. Backgazing intellectually reconfigures US and European modernism within a planetary orbit in which the literature of Australia and the Southern Hemisphere far from being merely an annexed margin can be seen substantively to change the directional compass of modernism more generally. By reading canonical modernists such as James Joyce and T S Eliot alongside marginalized writers such as Nancy Cunard and others and relatively neglected authors from Australia and New Zealand this book offers a revisionist cultural history of modernist time one framed by a recognition of how its measurement is modulated across geographical space.

Understanding the Novel Andrew Kilpatrick Thomson, 1966 Australian Literary Studies, 2002 Journal of Education, 1881 Landmarks Owen Marshall, 2020-11-03

A handsome landmark book celebrating the work of three of our literary and artistic heavyweights. The complementary work of artist Grahame Sydney, fiction writer Owen Marshall and poet Brian Turner was first brought together in the hugely successful Timeless Land in 1995. Its pages showed their shared deep connection to Central Otago, to its vast skies, its wide plains punctuated by jagged ranges, its unique colours and its dwarfing effect on the people who pass through it. Twenty five years later this lavish new volume from these three long time friends showcases a rich selection of their subsequent work including recently written previously unpublished pieces. Through their own marks about the land and its people, be it in ink or paint, they offer a love song to the South Island, in particular Central Otago.
