The Tomb Of The Devils:

Devils, Women, and Jews Joan Young Gregg, 2012-02-01 Contemporary misogyny and antisemitism have their roots in the demonization of women and Jews in medieval Christendom In church art and mass preaching the construct of the devil as an outcast from heaven and the source of all evil was linked both to the conception of women as sensual and malicious figures betraying man s soul on its arduous journey to salvation and to the notion of Jews as treacherous dissidents in the Christian landscape These stereotypes widely disseminated for over three hundred years persist today The exemplum or cautionary story incorporated into preachers manuals and popular homilies was an important mode of religious teaching for clerical and lay folk alike Sermon narratives drawn from Hindu mythology Arab storytelling and secular folktales entertained all classes of medieval society while dispensing theological and cultural instruction In Devils Women and Jews the vital genre of the medieval sermon story is for the first time made accessible to specialists and nonspecialists alike Rendered in modern English the tales provide an invaluable primary resource for medievalists anthropologists psychologists folklorists and students of women s studies and Judaica Critical introductions and explanatory headnotes contextualize the tales and comprehensive endnotes and a bibliography allow readers to follow up analogue and subject studies in their own areas of interest

The Day The Devil Smiled Heather R. Acquistapace, 2011-11-21 Heather Renae Acquistapace The Day the Devil Smiled Synopsis There is only one thing on Jesus Christs mind as He and His twelve disciples eat the Passover meal in Jerusalem the salvation of mankind The Son of God knows that the only way for humanity to be able to live with Him in eternity will be for Him to die to pay for the punishment of all the sins of time Jesus longs to save the people but He does not want to go through the bloody torturous death that awaits Him The Son of God is guarded by angels two of which are Iceil and Ameron The two angels as well as many others continually fight the demons trying to intercept the Mighty Ones plan of salvation Tyzar the demonic leader of the dark spirits in Jerusalem endlessly tries to disrupt Jesus mission and is helped by Sysen a demon specialized in controlling human minds During the Passover meal Jesus tries to prepare His disciples for the trying hours before them but the demons in the room cause the men to be confused by the Masters words Sysen takes control of one mans mind Judas Iscariot and deceives him into killing himself later on in the story The men then travel to the Mount of Olives where Jesus prays and asks God if there is another way to save the people of the world The Devil meets Jesus in the garden and tries to convince Him that Gods plan will fail The time of prayer is agonizingly difficult as Jesus inward conflict builds with each deceptive word from Satan After hours of prayer the Lord of Heaven and Earth tells Jesus to continue with the plan of salvation and He obeys When Jesus is done praying He is arrested by temple guards tied and taken before the religious leaders The demons try to make chaos and deceive the people The angels fight them to keep the disciples safe Jesus has angered the Jewish leaders in the past and has claimed He is the Son of God a crime punishable by death After an illegal trial Jesus is taken before the Roman governor of Jerusalem Pontius Pilate the only authority who can sentence someone to death The governor does not find Jesus guilty After questioning Him for a time he sends the Prisoner to Herod Antipas the governor of where Jesus was born a mob follows their every move Upon seeing Jesus Herod demands Him to perform a miracle but when Jesus does not obey He is sent back to Pilate The Roman does not want to kill the innocent Man Therefore he allows the Jews to pick between two prisoners Jesus and a murderous revolutionary to be set free as he does once every year to be in favor with the people The Jews choose the revolutionary and demand Jesus's death Satan whispers in Pilate's ear to have Jesus flogged to satisfy the crowd and the Roman still unwilling to kill Jesus and believing the Devil's advice is the solution orders for the beating to commence As Jesus's body is brutally slashed open with whips the angels face the demons wanting to torment Christ's spirit alongside the floggers Christ is then presented to the Jews once more but the cry for His death is louder still Pilate not wanting the people to become a riot surrenders and orders Jesus to be put to death The Son of God is followed by a mob to Golgotha and nailed to a cross Before He dies all the sins of mankind come onto Jesus and for the first time Christ feels separated from God When Jesus dies the Devil smiles but the sins are extinguished because of Jesus's sacrifice Three days after Jesus is killed the Holy Spirit brings Him back to life obtaining victory for the angels and destruction for the demons Jesus appears before His followers a number of times and forty days after His death ascends into Heaven along with Isaac Amerson and a few other angels Jesus sits down at the right hand of God humanity is saved and the demonic forces lose yet again another spiritual battle
