The Total Light Process New And Selected Poems:

The Total Light Process James Baker Hall, 2021-11-21 Nationally acclaimed poet photographer filmmaker and novelist James Baker Hall has long been regarded as one of Kentucky's most profound artists Hall's growing body of work is an essential part of Kentucky's literary tradition and yet his poetry in particular transcends the borders of the Commonwealth The Total Light Process collects poems spanning Hall's celebrated career as well as new poems that have never before been published The subjects of Hall's poems range from humorous and revealing portraits of his fellow writers and friends Wendell Berry Ed McClanahan and Gurney Norman to the traumatic experience of his mother's suicide when he was eight years old to the Israeli Palestinian conflict and the tragic murder of Matthew Shepherd Crossing the River Fenton Johnson, 2016-02-09 A spirited Southern woman upends the insular world of her small Kentucky town in this acclaimed debut novel by a storyteller of distinction Publishers Weekly Kentucky 1944 Though she hails from a Fundamentalist Baptist family there is nothing conventional about Martha Bragg Pickett Miracle In her youth she smoked cigarettes rode motorcycles and snuck across the Knob Fork River to buy beer from Catholics and fall in love with one Twenty years later Martha has settled into marriage But deep down she's just as rebellious as she ever was The arrival of a smooth talking Yankee contractor leads Martha to turn her life upside down unaware that her son will follow suit Both heartfelt and shrewdly humorous this widely acclaimed first novel from author Fenton Johnson is an affecting look at one woman's reawakening and her son's coming of age in the American heartland What Comes Down to Us Jeff Worley, 2009-11-27 What Comes Down To Us features twenty five of Kentucky's most accomplished contemporary poets Together they serve to illustrate the diversity and richness of poetry being written today in the Commonwealth The poems were collected by Jeff Worley a poet who has lived in Kentucky for more than two decades Although the subject matter of the poems transcends the state's borders the collection communicates a strong sense of Kentucky as a place Worley's introduction places contemporary Kentucky poetry in the context of the state's rich literary tradition and the poet biographies include their reflections and often their poetic approach and technique Scissors, Paper, Rock Fenton Johnson, 2016-02-09 Along with his siblings Raphael Hardin left his childhood home in rural Kentucky Grappling with an AIDS diagnosis he returns to care for his dying father Told from the perspectives of Raphael his family and their lifelong neighbor Fenton Johnson's landmark novel reveals the blood struggles and binding loves of a broken family made whole The Man Who Loved Birds Fenton Johnson, 2016-03-04 Having taken great risks to immigrate to America to take monastic vows Bengali physician Meena Chatterjee and Brother Flavian are each seeking safety and security when they encounter Johnny Faye a Vietnam vet free spirit and expert marijuana farmer Amid the fields and forests of a Trappist monastery Johnny Faye patiently cultivates Meena's and Flavian's capacity for faith transforming all they thought they knew about duty and desire In turn they offer him an experience of civilization other than war and chaos But Johnny Faye's law breaking sets him against a district attorney for whom the law is a tool for ambition rather than justice

Their confrontation leads to a harrowing reckoning that ensnares Dr Chatterjee and Brother Flavian who must make a life or death choice between an act of justice that may precipitate their ruin or a betrayal that offers salvation Inspired by the real life state police kidnapping and murder of a legendary storyteller and petty criminal The Man Who Loved Birds engages pressing contemporary issues through a timeless narrative of ill fated romance Celebrated author Fenton Johnson has woven a seamless haunting fable exploring the eternal conflicts between free will and destiny politics and nature the power of law and the power of love
