Magic Chants for Beginners Harry Eilenstein, 2021-05-31 Spell chants have a very long tradition already in the Egyptian Book of the Dead some texts are praised as spells that can be sung well Moreover in many traditions magicians are not called speakers but singers It is obviously worthwhile to take a closer look at the nature of singing in contrast to the spoken word in magic Singing and speaking are the expression of different chakras and they also have a different effect Therefore there are situations in which a magic chant is the appropriate thing to do and situations in which a spoken spell is the right thing to do or going into silence These reflections are complemented by about 90 examples of spell chants from various cultures

Travel Old & New Samuel Joseph Looker, 1922 Tales of Travel Marquess George

Nathaniel Curzon Curzon of Kedleston, 1859-1925 was a British politician, traveler and writer who served as viceroy of India from 1899 to 1905 and foreign secretary from 1919 to 1924. As a young man he traveled extensively and wrote several travel books or books that drew extensively on his travels including Russia in Central Asia (1889), Persia and the Persian Question (1892) and Problems of the Far East (1894). Tales of Travel (1923) presented here is one of his last books. It consists of previously unpublished memoirs and essays based on journeys taken earlier in Curzon's life. The book reflects the range of Curzon's travels, his curiosity and powers of observation, and his literary talent. One essay, The Great Waterfalls of the World, describes and compares waterfalls in North America, South America, Africa, India, and New Zealand. Another, The Singing Sands, deals with the strange singing or rumbling sounds said to be heard in deserts and discusses this phenomenon as it manifests itself in the deserts of Central Asia, Afghanistan, Persia, the Sinai, Arabia, North Africa, and the Americas. Another piece is about sumo wrestling in Japan. One of the most noteworthy essays in the book, The Amir of Afghanistan, is an account of Curzon's meetings in 1894-95 with Abd al Rahman Khan, circa 1844-1901, ruler of Afghanistan. Curzon characterizes the amir as brilliant and effective but also cruel and merciless. He welded the Afghan tribes into a unity which they had never previously enjoyed, and he paved the way for the complete independence which his successors achieved. He and he alone was the Government of Afghanistan. The book is illustrated and contains a large fold-out facsimile of a map of Afghanistan prepared and circulated by Abd al Rahman Khan.
