Unwanted Warriors Nic Clarke, 2015-10-01 Unwanted Warriors uncovers the history of Canada's first casualties of the Great War men who tried to enlist but were deemed unfit for service by medical examiners Condemned as shirkers for not being in uniform rejected volunteers faced severe ostracism Nagging guilt coupled with self doubt about their social and physical worth led many of these men to divorce themselves from society or worse Nic Clarke draws on the service files of 3 400 rejected volunteers to examine the deleterious effects that socially constructed norms of health and fitness had on individual men and Canadian society He considers the mechanics of the military medical examination the psychical and psychological characteristics that the authorities believed made a fighting man and how evaluations changed as the war dragged on He also brings to light the experiences of those who deliberately claimed disability to avoid service a minority within the large population of rejected volunteers who felt denigrated if not emasculated by their exclusion from duty

The History of the 2/6th (Rifle) Battalion "The King's" (Liverpool Regiment) 1914-1918 Captain C. E. Wurtzburg, 2011-12-16 This second line Territorial battalion was formed at Liverpool in early September 1914 allocated to 171st Bde 57th Division and landed in France on 14 Feb 1917 it fought on the Western Front for the rest of the war The author served with the battalion for much of the war though he does spell out the periods he was away from it when he gained his information from those present at the events he describes The battalion took part in all the fighting of the division in Third Ypres Drocourt Queant Switch in the Hindenburg Line Cambrai Oct 1918 and the occupation of Lille Of particular value to the genealogist and medallist are the appendices One gives the succession of COs 2ICs Adjutants and Quartermasters from the formation of the battalion and after it arrived in France the list of the company commanders and WOs A second appendix lists all the officers showing the period served served with the battalion and the reason for leaving the highest rank achieved appointments held honours and awards and casualty details ten dead twenty nine wounded while the third does the same for the other ranks of whom 234 died The narrative is full of incident plenty of names mentioned as there should be in a good regimental battalion history and the maps are clear marking out trench systems with names and and pinpointing features on the battlefield The photos are good including portrait photos of officers and battlefield scenes This is an excellent example of a battalion history
