Understanding Canada A Multidisciplinary Introduction To Canadian Studies:

Understanding Canada William Metcalfe,1982 Scholars, Missionaries, and Counter-Imperialists Andrew C. Holman,Brian Payne,2022-03-13 For more than half a century the field of Canadian Studies has attracted North American scholars of the highest caliber to examine Canada its distinctive social makeup its fascinating colonial and postcolonial history its intriguing literature its political structure and its changing place in the world Scholars Missionaries and Counter Imperialists The American Review of Canadian Studies 1971 2021 traces the birth and growth of that field by reproducing 15 exemplary articles published in the pages of that journal from its establishment until the present day For five decades the American Review of Canadian Studies ARCS acted as a bellwether for the field revealing its strengths projecting new directions and inquiries and reflecting the changing topics and methods that scholars used to study Canada This book captures the history of that field in one robust volume Carefully selected by the co editors of ARCS the chapters in this edited volume are prefaced by an introductory essay that assesses the accomplishments of the field and brief chapter introductions that place them into context Cross-Cultural Reckonings Blanche H. Gelfant,1995-01-27 Blanche H Gelfant s book Cross Cultural Reckonings both demonstrates and questions the applicability of postmodern cultural and literary theories to realistic texts to fiction and autobiographies valued for their truth Drawing together an unusual combination of Russian American and Canadian writers the various essays of this book provide new and original perspectives upon the puzzling issues of national identity of historical change and continuity of gender and the integrity of literary genres the boundaries between text and context and the underlying if overlooked conflicts between the postmodern critic s skepticism and a writer s belief in the transcendence of art and truth To avoid the contingencies inherent in binary comparisons the essays in this book seek a triadic form analogous to the triptych or polyptych of the visual arts Multi faceted non linear and open ended such a form might allow the academic essay to recover a waywardness that traces back to Montaigne cited in prefatory notes and to the etymological meaning of the essay as an exagium or weighing as an act of reckoning A study at once elegant erudite and personal Cross Cultural Reckonings reckons with writers of different backgrounds and reputation in whom Gelfant discovers surprising affinities among them the Russian writers Lydia Chukovskaya Natalya Baranskaya and Alexander Solzhenitsyn Ethel Wilson a highly reputed Canadian writer the famous cross cultural figure Emma Goldman and established as well as new or rediscovered American writers such as Willa Cather Saul Bellow Arlene Heyman and Meridel Le Sueur These writers are discussed singly and in comparative essays each of which is discrete and self contained while all interconnect and reflect upon each other as exemplary demonstrations of cross cultural literary criticism and the deferred final judgment that results from a weighing and reweighing of books The Guises of Canadian Diversity / Les masques de la diversité canadienne ,2022-06-08 The essays collected here illustrate aspects of recent research conducted by graduate students in Canadian studies at various European universities The methodological diversity displayed points to the very essence of the culture the contributors explore what has been commonly termed the Canadian mosaic or more recently the Canadian kaleidoscope Janice Kulyk Keefer In analysing the many facets of this mosaic the numerous images of this kaleidoscope the contributors offer fresh and youthful reappraisals of traditional visions of Canadianness The Old Dualities Dianne Tiefensee,1994 In this provocative re examination of the work of Robert Kroetsch who has been hailed as the father of Canadian post modernism Dianne Tiefensee argues that Kroetsch s deconstruction fails to address or even comprehend the radical nature of Derrida s theory Shared Space: Divided Space Michael Chisholm,David M. Smith,2016-01-29 This specially commissioned volume of original essays first published in 1990 provides a unique view of conflict territorial behaviour and reconciliation between groups social racial religious and nationalist within states in both the developed and the developing worlds The volume as a whole shows the wide range of geographical solutions which have been adopted in attempts to limit conflict and foster stability This title underlines the importance of a geographical perspective on intergroup conflict and reconciliation and provides a broad range of real world experience in carefully chosen case studies Shared Space Divided Space will be of interest students of the social sciences as well as to general readers who will find this title to be accessible and authoritative Canadian Studies Martin Kuester,1995 Canada : Introduction Bibliographic André Senécal,International Council for Canadian Studies,1991 Strangers at Our Gates Valerie Knowles,2016-03-05 An exploration of how immigration has shaped Canadian identity and how modern debates are reshaping our national character In this history of immigration to Canada Valerie Knowles explores the kinds of immigrants who have settled in Canada as well as the immigration policies policymakers and public figures who have played a part in the story Canadian Studies Update ,2001 British Journal of Canadian Studies ,1996 The Canadian Historical Review ,1983 Includes section Recent publications relating to Canada Theory and Practice in Comparative Studies, Canada, Australia and New Zealand Australian and New Zealand Association for Canadian Studies. Conference,Peter Crabb,Australian and New Zealand Association for Canadian Studies,1983 The USA and Canada 1990 1st E 1990,1989 This systematic and comprehensive survey of the USA and Canada provides valuable factual statistical and directory information and examines political economic and social affairs University of Toronto Quarterly University of Toronto,1984 Social Action ,1995 Beyond Resistance M. Dasan,2003 Seminar papers The Ongoing Journey Kavita A. Sharma,1997 Canadian Culture Canadian Institute of International Affairs, Centre on Foreign Policy and Federalism (Waterloo, Ont.),1985 Women in the Indian Diaspora Amba Pande,2017-12-05 This volume brings into focus a range of emergent issues related to women in the Indian diaspora The conditions propelling women s migration and their experiences during the process of migration and settlement have always been different and very specific to them Standing in between the two worlds of origin and adoption women tend to experience dialectic tensions between freedom and subjugation but they often use this space to assert independence and to redefine their roles and perceptions of self The central idea in this volume is to understand women's agency in addressing and redressing the complex issues faced by them in restructuring the cultural formats of patriarchy and gender relations managing the emerging conflicts over what is to be transmitted to the following generations renegotiating their domestic roles and embracing new professional and educational successes and adjusting to the institutional structures of the host state The essays included in the volume discuss women in the Indian diaspora from multidisciplinary perspectives involving social economic cultural and political aspects Such an effort privileges diasporic women's experiences and perspectives in the academia and among policy makers
